Location & Local Information

Villa Monteros enjoys a very prestigious, beachfront location. One of the very best in Marbella. Los Monteros is a famed beachside neighbourhood roughly 10 minutes from the centre of Marbella. The famous Spanish banker Ignacio Coca constructed the famous Los Monteros Hotel in 1962 and, later in 1965, the renowned Rio Real Golf Course. Since then, various distinguished estates have been built in the area. The hotel and spa resort runs the swanky La Cabana Beach Club on the seafront, which is very upmarket and popular. Playa Los Monteros enjoys a fantastic beach with excellent bars and restaurants. The neighbourhood enjoys the added cache thanks to the Malaga born actor Antonio Banderas having a seafront residence.

For Mediterranean glamour, Marbella holds its own with the French Riviera and other European hot-spots. Michelin-starred restaurants, manicured, challenging golf courses, marinas bustling with high-end yachts, chic, designer boutiques, glitzy entertainment and never-ending golden sandy beaches are all in abundance. Plaza de Los Naranjos, the old part of Marbella, enjoys its Arabic characteristics and features restaurant's tables scattered in the square's formal garden bordered by orange trees and pretty balconies all around, all adorned with beautiful, vibrant flowers. The labyrinth of narrow pedestrian streets is laid with red tiles and crazy paving. Stunning plazas are brimming with trendy, upmarket bars and restaurants and unique shops offering souvenirs, olive oil, local pottery and lace. The whitewashed buildings are wrapped in colourful bougainvillea and topped with terracotta roofs, many dating back to the renaissance. Alameda Park is just a few steps south of Old Town and feels like a private garden. There are marble walkways, fountains and benches, all under a thick canopy of tropical foliage. Many of the benches are clad with azulejos, classic Andalusian hand-printed tiles. The handsome walkway, Avenida del Mar, leads from the park to Playa de la Venus, next to Marbella's first-class marina. It enjoys palm trees and bronze sculptures designed by Salvador Dali. The central Plaza de la Iglesia is very beautiful and often hosts bustling markets and concerts. Besides the typical Andalusian cultural events, there are annual festivals dedicated to music, including the Marbella International Opera Festival held in August, the Marbella Reggae Festival in July, plus the Marbella International Film Festival is held in June.

Twenty kilometres away, Puerto Banus was designed and built-in 1970 by local property developer Jose Banus as a luxury marina and shopping complex. Puerto Banus attracts the rich and famous with classy restaurants, clubs, bars and a heavenly marina brimming with high-end yachts. Sala Beach Club and Ocean Club Marbella are two of Puerto Banus' luxury beach clubs where you can indulge in champagne and gourmet lunches; all served by attentive staff. Within Ocean Club Marbella, there is a range of exclusive shops, a wellness spa and massage, a swimming pool, a restaurant, 4 bars and a chill-out zone.

Malaga is also a very popular resort with a historic centre, handsome streets, a vibrant gastronomic scene, wonderful museums, unique boutique shops and lively streets, bustling with cafes and tapas bars. As the birthplace of Pablo Picasso, one of Malaga's main attractions is the museum dedicated to him, which is housed within the beautifully restored Buenavista Palace. Malaga is a foodie destination, with the Mercado Central de Atarazanas being very popular. The brilliant Port of Malaga is lined with upmarket restaurants and bars. Malaga Cathedral is a must-visit.
