

Villa Marco de Covas

Region: Galicia Sleeps: 2 - 4

Overview

The enchanting Villa Marco de Covas is fabulously romantic. This beautifully restored, rural ancient gem is located in a tranquil location just 5km from the famous Santiago de Compostela. With its gorgeous stone, it is extremely pretty and enjoys a fabulous garden and modern swimming pool. Think rural chic and you can imagine Villa Marco de Covas. You have a fantastic choice of deluxe alfresco furnishings where you can enjoy the tranquility, the fabulous views and gorgeous sunsets and sunrises. Correxins is a sleepy village on the outskirts of the historical town of Santiago de Compostela with fabulous lush greenery all around. It is very relaxing.

Villa Marco de Covas enjoys wonderful contemporary styling as well as having retained its fabulous ancient charms. Throughout you will find delightful exposed stone walls, intricate wooden furnishings, heavy draped curtains and atmospheric beamed ceilings blending brilliantly with contemporary artworks, furnishings and utilities. With one very romantic bedroom and a sofa bed in the living area, the villa can sleep 2 adults and up to 2 children.

The double bedroom features a beautiful carved double bed, an ensuite bathroom with a splendid hydromassage shower and delightful garden views. The upper living area enjoys the panoramic vistas, a contemporary sofa bed, television and a lovely wooden vaulted ceiling. Downstairs, the kitchen is a delight with a modern wood burning stove, lovely wooden cabinetry and grey worktops. It also enjoys direct access to the villa's gorgeous gardens and swimming pool.

The stunning garden features many quiet areas with lovely rattan furnishings where you can enjoy the peace and quiet. It offers alfresco dining using the villa's barbecue. The swimming pool is heated by solar panels during the Spring and Summer and is surrounded by luxury loungers including a double day bed.

It is a real treat to stay in this magical holiday villa where you can explore the wonderful city of Santiago de Compostela, the fantastic local wine region and the glorious coastline of Galicia. You will eat like kings in this stunning region, famous for not only its sensational wines but for its gastronomy.

Location & Local Information

Villa Marco de Covas is located in the tranquil village of Correxins, just 5km from the famous Santiago de Compostela. With beautiful greenery all around, the location is delightful. There is a restaurant serving delicious Galician dishes and a bar very close to the villa.

Santiago de Compostela has its origin in the shrine of Saint James the Great, now the magnificent Cathedral de Compostela. Since the 9th century, thousands of pilgrims have travelled the St James' Way every year, reaching this majestic capital of Galicia and entering the iconic cathedral. Along with its pilgrimage history, it is a buzzy city with countless restaurants and bars where visitors can enjoy delicious seafood and local delicacies. It enjoys its UNESCO World Heritage centre along with contemporary art galleries and trendy bars. One of the most special places in the city is Plaza del Obradoiro, the site of the Cathedral, Raxoi Palace and the luxurious Hostal de los Reyes Catolicos, said to be the world's oldest hotel. There is a ritual for visiting the Cathedral, you will admire the Portico de la Gloria, embrace the figure of St James on the main alter, go down to the crypt and up to the sensational rooftop to enjoy the views. There are many other fascinating historical buildings such as the imposing Monastery of San Martino Pinario. A visit to the colourful Mercado de Abastos food market is fabulous, the second most visited place in the city. You can buy and taste seafood fresh from the Rias, delicious cheeses and Padron peppers and well as the famous tapas. In the heart of the old town you can also enjoy tapas, octopus a feira, scallops and Santiago cakes along with the delicious Albarino wines. In the university area you will find contemporary architecture including Cidade da Cultura by the New York architect Peter Eisenman and the Galacian Contemporary Art Centre.

The Ria boasts approximately 70 beaches stretching from Finisterre on the North side of the Ria to Corrubedo on the south side. There is a huge variety of beaches including family beaches, beaches with restaurants and cafes, hidden beaches, beaches for watersport lovers and even naturist beaches! Favourite epic beaches are Carnota with its gorgeous sand dunes and rock pools, crab and fish catching and Louro with its beautiful sand and crystal clear waters. Playa de Brona and Playa de Esteiro are popular family beaches.

The historical cities of Padron, Pontevedra and La Coruna are easily within reach and are wonderful cultural excursions.

What we love

- Carnota Beach, the largest beach on the west coast of Spain is definitely worth a visit. It hasn't changed for centuries!
- Villa Marco de Covas is a delight! It is romantic, retains its warmth and history yet is now rural chic at its best!
- The swimming pool and gardens are lovely with deluxe outdoor furnishings and splendid views
- The villa is next door to another of Oliver's Travels villas, Villa Correxins; both enjoy separate gardens, pools, and entrances, but can be rented together

What you should know...

- The villa offers just one special bedroom though there is a sofa bed in the living area which can sleep 2 children
- The villa is just 5km from Santiago de Compostela with its cultural centre, gourmet restaurants and fabulous wine bars
- The solar panels will heat the swimming pool during the Spring and Summer but not the Winter
