

Maison Moliere

Region: Languedoc Sleeps: 12

Overview

In the heart of a Languedoc wine-village close to Pézenas, this grand Maison De Maître offers charm, character and the most impressive features set in magnificently landscaped gardens with a private swimming pool.

Indeed, it will feel like a privilege to stay in such a historic home dating back to the 19th century. With seven attractive bedrooms alongside welcoming living spaces, this house is filled with so many original features such as elegant high ceilings, tiled flooring and intricate design. Traditionally furnished with comfort in mind, there's an air of old-fashioned romance whether it's the sweet fireplaces, beautiful French windows or juliet-style wrought iron balconies.

Yet there are so many brilliant additions that you may not expect, like the superb sauna and massage area in the stone annexe, a fantastic media room with workstations and of course the glistening swimming pool surrounded by a picturesque private terrace and summer kitchen with barbecue.

The gardens are just as outstanding with vast landscaped grounds, so surprising for a village home, towering trees, a pretty pagoda, lovely terraces for morning coffee or al-fresco meals and a relaxing Moroccan courtyard. It feels like a Languedoc paradise yet so close to everything this glorious region has to offer.

Wander into the heart of the village to admire the beautiful church before picking up your morning croissants or perhaps visit one of the wineries, after all there are so many to choose from in the surrounding area with its landscapes of vineyards and wine villages.

Just a short drive away, Pézenas is one of southern France's most gorgeous towns with exquisite architecture and narrow cobbled lanes filled with little shops and delightful places to eat as well as the historic 14th century market on a Saturday morning, one of the best of the region. See what's on at the L'illustre Théâtre and follow in the steps of Molière in the town he loved so much.

Discover the Mediterranean coast with the beaches around Cap d'Agde about half an hour away, with endless summer activities such as watersports and amusement parks. Enjoy oysters from the Étang de Thau in Mèze or spend quieter time by the tranquil Lac du Salagou with hiking and cycling trails as well as lakeside beaches and more watersports.

Béziers, Montpellier and even the magnificent city of Carcassonne are also waiting to be explored for yet more exciting days out. That said, you may just choose to spend your time unwinding in your huge garden or by the wonderful swimming pool of your handsome holiday home.

Location & Local Information

Maison Molière is located in a typical Hérault wine village in Languedoc-Roussillon, a short drive from the historic town of Pézenas and just over half an hour from the Mediterranean coast.

The village itself is a delight with characterful houses and a beautiful church in the centre as well as simple yet useful amenities such as a bakery and tabac. Wine-lovers will have the opportunity to visit wineries here and in neighbouring villages as well as arrange local vineyard tours.

Pézenas (8km) is a jewel of the region, an exquisite town full of history with elegant architecture, charming antique shops and little art galleries. Wander around the narrow lanes coming across pretty shops and some excellent places to eat. Make sure you experience the exceptional market on a Saturday morning which dates back to the 14th century. Follow in Molière's footsteps in the town he loved so much and visit the famous L'illustre Théâtre.

Usually in July and August Pézenas hosts the atmospheric 'Les Estivales' on a Friday evening with night markets across the town serving delicious food and lots of local wine alongside live music.

Heading south, enjoying Bouzigues oysters from the nearby Étang de Thau with local white wine is a must and you can take a boat trip out to see the fascinating oyster beds. Mèze (25km) is a lively town on the lagoon with markets, festivities and even some watersports. Look out for jousting tournaments in the height of the summer, a great tradition of this region.

It's just over half an hour from the Mediterranean coast with the beaches around Cap d'Agde or, a little further, Marseillan Plage and Sète. There is a great range of water-based activities in the summer as well as amusement parks, water parks and other family-friendly attractions.

Heading inland, Lac du Salagou (25km) is a tranquil area where you can paddle-board, kayak or wind-surf on the lake as well as follow walking, hiking and mountain biking trails. Indeed, Languedoc-Roussillon is a glorious region for walking and horse-riding, whether through the wild garrigue, vineyards and olive groves or between enchanting hilltop wine villages. Canoeing along the River Orb is another way to appreciate the area's natural beauty.

Other brilliant days out include a trip to the exciting town of Béziers, a visit to the grand city of Montpellier or driving to the stunning village of Saint Guilhem le Désert (45km), a UNESCO World Heritage site.

Carcassonne (110km) is another remarkable place around ninety minutes by car or spend time canoeing or picnicking at the incredible Pont du Gard

(144km), close to the Roman city of Nîmes.
