

Runton Cottage

Region: Norfolk Sleeps: 8

Overview

Bursting with natural light and vibrancy, Runton Cottage invites guests to relax, unwind and settle into comfort in style!

The interiors are wonderfully open, not just to the outside world but also within, flowing seamlessly from one room to the next, each delightfully styled with soft monochrome fabrics and geometric patterns. You can rustle up a treat in your expansive kitchen, perfectly blending traditional charm with modern ease, whilst chatting with others sitting along the breakfast bar, and laughing along with those at the dining table all at once! And from here there's even a lounge area at the far end of this beautiful sunroom. Meanwhile there's a beautifully cosy lounge tucked away from this social space for when you want to just pop your feet up in front of the TV and switch off!

The master bedroom echoes this air of relaxation, with nautical colours, the same enchanting wooden flooring blending beautifully with the rustic themed decor. A vast king-size bed sits at its heart, while an ensuite with a double vanity unit and enormous walk-in shower completes this exquisite room. The same palette of dazzling whites and gentle wood textures continues into the second bedroom, also complete with a king-size bed, with all-wooden furniture and flooring enhancing this beautiful natural ambience. A second ensuite bathroom with a walk-in shower ensures you'll all be pampered in perfect privacy here. There is one more double ensuite, while the two remaining single rooms share an elegant bathroom with a walk-in shower and a bathtub for long, lazy soaks!

You'll delight in this wonderful garden bursting with life and subtle charm. Dine in style at this dazzling alfresco table and listen to the waves washing in and the sea breeze rustling the leaves overhead. There's plenty of space for children to run and play safely within the grounds, and you can even sit inside and still keep an eye on them thanks to this fabulous sunroom!

Location & Local Information

Tucked in the quaint village of West Runton, and just a short walk from the beach and the breath-taking, world-famous coastline of North Norfolk, Runton Cottage is a superb choice for a peaceful, memorable holiday with friends or family.

The Broads National Park, the Fens and Thetford Forest are just a handful of the breath-taking nature parks to visit, while Norfolk's coastline is bursting with wide open, empty beaches perfect for a proper bucket-and-spade holiday with the family! This is where the expanse of the skies truly bursts with life and fills you with joy.

Dotted along the horizon are yachts and power-boats while nearer to shore you'll find surfers, kayakers, kite-surfers and so much more! While lining the beaches are hundreds of candy-coloured beach huts, dazzling promenades with candyfloss and fish and chips and of course, the romantic dunes with endless hidden spots for barbeques and family-fun. And what's more - you'll find tons of great local produce at the farmers' markets and local shops as well as the many pubs, restaurants and cafes nearby, including fresh seafood and locally produced beer!

If it's fine dining and a city stop you're after, you're just a short drive from Norwich, the 'City of Stories', with its beautiful and deeply historical winding cobbled lanes, abounding with old merchant houses, quaint shops and medieval stone churches! While out here at the coast, seaside treats, cosy cafes and endless miles of nature in which you can picnic, stroll and play are perfect for groups of families or friends.

The vast skies stretch in every direction, over the Broads teeming with life and the wetlands, nature reserves and so many exceptional beaches along 90 miles of coastline! And as the driest county in the UK, Norfolk is ideal for an outdoor adventure, whether on sea or land! The nearby Cromer beach is delightfully sandy and home to delicious fresh crab which you can pick up from several local fishmongers, while the Pavilion Theatre on the Pier boasts annual summer and winter shows which draw crowds from far and wide! There's truly something for everyone!
