

Trevone Lodge

Region: Cornwall Sleeps: 11

Overview

Inviting in the warmth and sunshine of the wonderful world beyond its four walls, Trevone Beach House is a magnificently welcoming, bright and homely house in this breath-taking landscape, moments from the unforgettable Trevone Bay.

Truly these interiors are dazzling and delightful. A sun room invites the most magnificent sunshine flooding through the full length windows, with sofas along two sides and large retractable glass doors leading into your exquisite garden. This modern, sparkling white kitchen offers the perfect place to cook up a delicious meal for the group with tons of space and a stylish breakfast bar for more casual dining. The open plan dining area creates a sense of openness, while the huge living room is the perfect place to relax and to gather the group together in front of the TV and the fireplace. You can enjoy beautiful views across your garden and the surrounding countryside throughout the home, promising you a sense of retreat and calm wherever you choose to put your feet up and unwind!

With four beautiful bedrooms for up to eight guests, you can settle into your comfortable and cosy bed at the end of a long day in paradise. The main bedroom features a double bed under a fabulous set of Velux windows, complete with a telescope to enjoy the crystal clear night skies! The second bedroom also has a double bed under large windows that flood the room with the morning light and offer beautiful views across the countryside. The remaining two bedrooms are both twin rooms, with a bonus trundle bed for added flexibility. Alongside the bedrooms are three stunning bathrooms, with a range of walk in showers and large bathtubs to pamper yourself in a luxurious space.

And finally - there's your extraordinary garden! Bursting with life and colour and offering tons of space for all the activities you can dream of. This large lawn is great for the youngsters to run around and frolic to their hearts content, meanwhile there's an idyllic spot for alfresco dining when the weather's fine! And for the most relaxing place of all, kick back in a sun lounger on the patio and listen to the leaves rustling in the breeze while you sip a glass of wine, or indeed perhaps a local beverage - after all, Cornwall is home to the three major breweries of St Austell, Sharps and Skinners, all of which brew delicious beer!

Location & Local Information

Just a few minutes' walk to the breath-taking Trevone Beach and under half an hour's walk to the magnificent Harlyn Bay Beach, you're truly ideally located to enjoy the best that Cornwall has to offer!

For yet more beautiful beaches, a few minutes to the south is Newquay, the surfing capital of the UK, where you're guaranteed entertainment for kids and big kids alike! Other fabulous towns to visit across Cornwall include Bude, an hour north, with its excellent beaches, first class surfing and laidback, relaxed vibe on the north coast; and St Ives, an hour south and the home of one branch of the Tate Gallery, with white sand beaches and crystal-clear turquoise waters.

Famous for its water-sports, in particular surfing, Cornwall also offers an incredible rock climbing scene, off-road cycling, including the 18 mile 'Camel Trail' following the scenic estuary of the river Camel and, of course, walking. The South West Coast Path, which runs for hundreds of miles along the West Country southern coastline, is particularly scenic around Penwith and the Lizard in the far south-west, venturing through vibrant towns, remote cliffs, beaches, farms and fishing villages. Be sure to try a Cornish pasty and delicious sweet Saffron buns (fruit buns flavoured with saffron), and of course a little Cornish clotted cream and ice cream! And for a local tipple, the three major breweries of St Austell, Sharps and Skinners serve excellent beer in pubs throughout the county.

To get here, there are ever-improving roads and trains running right through to Penzance in the far south-west of the county, as well as airports in Newquay, Exeter and Bristol, with car hire available at all three airports so you won't have a thing to worry about once you're booked to travel!
