

Dyfi House

Region: Snowdonia Sleeps: 16

Overview

Nestled on the outskirts of Snowdonia yet just a short walk from the village pub, Dyfi House is the sublime rural retreat you need to reset and unwind!

The home consists of two stunning detached, fully-equipped properties alongside one another, tucked in a magnificently rural area with simply superb countryside views - and even a private hot tub! In these wondrous kitchens you'll find all the mod cons you could possibly need to rustle up a treat for the whole group, including slow cookers so you can head out for the day and come back to a delicious hot meal ready to go! There's also of course cafetieres so you can enjoy a freshly-brewed coffee each morning as you gaze out over the Dyfi Valley. There's a large dining room in each property, but for truly unforgettable meal times, gather the entire group around this enormous 16-person, oak dining table in the larger home, with magnificent views through the bay window, for mealtimes all together. There's also a living room in each home, too, boasting cosy wood burners and big sofas, as well as a library for kids and adults alike, brimming with local maps. And finally, you'll even find a play area on the landing, with children's toys to keep them entertained on cosy nights in.

Across the two homes you'll find six double bedrooms, including four king-size beds and two doubles, all incredibly spacious, bright and airy, with gentle seaside tones throughout! Each offers a wall-mounted TV and perfect, picturesque window seats! And in the three accompanying en-suite bathrooms you'll find locally made Welsh soap provided, too. Up on the top floor of each home there are attic spaces laid out as twin bedrooms, but these can be linked to make king-size beds upon request if that's more suitable to your group! There are three en-suite bathrooms across the rooms, plus two family bathrooms, with a modern spa bath in one and freestanding bath in the other - promising a delightful soak when the feeling takes you!

And finally, the jewel in the crown of this stunning home is undoubtedly its location and the magical garden nestled within it. The hot tub, with room for six, is a clear standout, offering a truly unforgettable spot to relax, chat or enjoy a tippie, all with gorgeous views! Meanwhile there's alfresco dining up on your beautiful, elevated, decking area, from where you can keep an eye on the youngsters playing in this wonderfully enclosed garden below. Fire up the luxury gas barbecue for a day of sunshine and delicious food in this most magnificent setting!

Location & Local Information

Sandwiched directly between the Snowdonia National Park and the Brecon Beacons, Dyfi House couldn't be better placed for enjoying the scenery, tranquillity and of course adventures on offer across the beautiful Welsh landscape!

Promising all the charm of a rural retreat, you're still just a short walk from the fabulous village pub, the 'Black Lion Inn'! And you'll find tons of cafes, independent shops and a quaint village centre in the nearby market town of Machynlleth, known as the ancient capital of Wales.

Whether you're into hill-walking, hiking, canoeing, mountain biking, kayaking or climbing, you'll find it all just a stone's throw away, with the spectacular Brecon Beacons National Park and Snowdonia National Park right on your doorstep. And you're not even that far from the Pembrokeshire Coast National Park. The rather more adventurous among you might even try surfing, hang-gliding or even a go on the only four-person zip line in Europe! One thing's for sure, you're bound to find your perfect spot amid the extraordinary natural landscapes of Wales' most treasured parks.

With water to the north, south and east, Wales has rather more than its fair share of dramatic coastline, making for not only incredible scenery but also a superb beach-holiday destination! The Wales Coast Path traces the country's entire length, taking in perfect sandcastle-beaches and striking mountain passes weaving through the wilderness. The immense geological diversity can be enjoyed along the extensive network of paths, while for some jaw-dropping architectural beauty, Caernarfon Castle and Caerphilly Castle are just two of the many sublime castles.
