Location & Local Information

This contemporary property is located in the small village of Gata, an unspoiled, tranquil area, only 6km away from the sandy beaches and bustling town of Omiš. Surrounded by picturesque mountain views and vistas towards the blue azure of the Adriatic, it is the perfect spot for those looking to escape hustle and bustle and simply relax.

Within minutes of the villa, you can be in Gata, making use of the small mini market and the few small eateries, serving up local classics. A 10-minute drive brings you to the magnificent Cetina River, and just a little further down the road to the delightful historic town of Omiš. Omiš is located 25km south of Split on Croatia's breath-taking Dalmation coast. Once a famous pirate town, there is a rich history to explore. The town had brilliant seamen who navigated the Adriatic Sea keeping the town wealthy and, in the late 12th century, fortified walls were built to protect it from invaders, and you can still walk some of walls to this day.

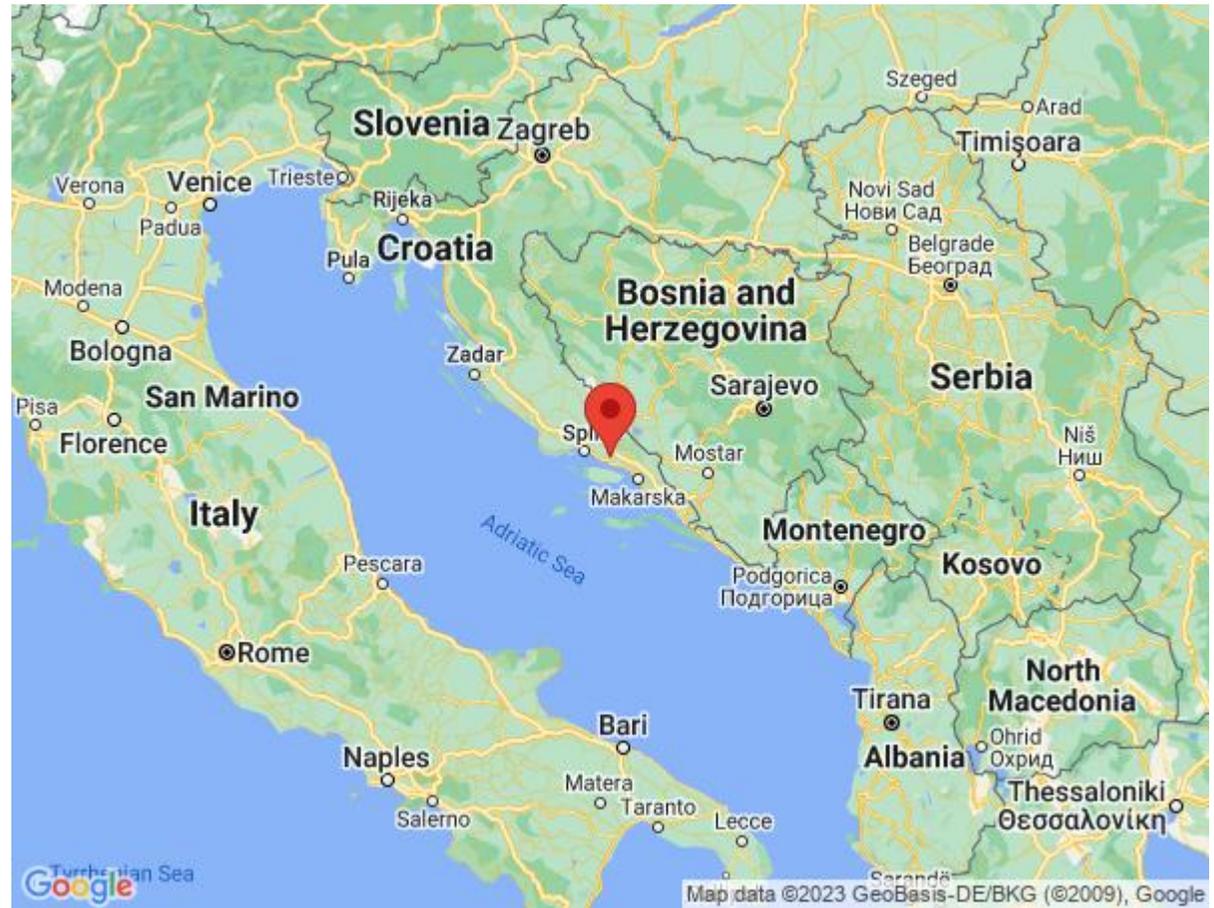

The scenery around the entire Riviera is rugged, with sharp, jagged mountains, gorges and dazzling turquoise water. This dramatic scenery is juxtaposed by ancient building and churches, with visitors encouraged to explore the 13th century Fortress Mirabella and 15th century Fortress Starigrad, otherwise known as Fortica Fortress, silent reminders of the power and might of the infamous Omiš pirates. St Michael's Square at the centre of the town, is bursting with busy cafes, bars and restaurants, hence the town enjoys a reputation for its excellent gastronomy.

For those seeking a little more active relaxation, the illustrious Cetina River offers action-packed adventures. The calcareous canyon is the ideal place for canyoning with the cliff face reaching up to 180 metres and a maze of tunnels, waterfalls and lakes. Extreme canyoning with experienced instructors and professional alpine gear involves descending down the Gubavica Waterfall. Adrenaline seekers also enjoy the incredible zipline that crosses the canyon 150 metres off the ground. Of course, there are more sedate options, with canoes and kayaks that you can paddle down the pretty river on and plenty of picnic spots for quiet afternoons. Just north of the village of Kucice, you can ride in giant inflatable donuts and descend the small river rapids – a truly unforgettable experience!
