

Villa Peyia

Region: Paphos Sleeps: 10

Overview

Villa Peyia is one of four wonderful newly-built villas in a quiet area of Peyia on the southwest coast of Cyprus, only a five-minute drive from the resort of Coral Bay which boasts one of the best beaches in the area and twenty-five minutes from the bustling city of Paphos. This stunningly appointed villa with five bedrooms can accommodate up to ten guests, perfect for a sun soaked much needed family break, a relaxing holiday with friends or even a golfing trip.

Entering the villa on the lower ground floor you find the two twin bedrooms, both of these spacious bedrooms have ample storage space and en-suite facilities, one of them even has patio doors leading out to the terrace. From here, stairs lead you up to the ground floor and into the large, airy open plan lounge, dining area and fully appointed kitchen. The open-plan lounge area comes complete with plenty of comfortable seating, a TV and two sets of patio doors leading out to the terrace overlooking your private pool. This whole area is fabulously furnished with contemporary interiors and stylish grey marble tiles throughout. The indoor dining area can comfortably seat all ten guests, while patio doors leading directly to the covered poolside dining area. The three beautifully appointed king-size bedrooms, each boasting en-suite facilities are also located on this level.

The spacious terrace is centred around the stunning private pool which enjoys views over the garden and out to sea. This is the perfect area for relaxing, enjoying alfresco dining or simply enjoying the sunshine from the comfort of the loungers set around the pool and terrace. The large immaculate garden beyond the terrace is laid out in scented Mediterranean shrubs, trees and areas of gravel. There is also a private covered parking area should you choose to use a car to get around the surrounding area during your stay.

Location & Local Information

There is so much to do in this stunning area of Cyprus if you can tear yourself away from the peace and tranquillity of Villa Peyia.

The village of Peyia itself is within walking distance of the villa. Set on the gentle sloping hills above the Coral Bay resort, it mixes traditional with the new, wonderful old Cypriot buildings are littered around the imposing Church at the centre of the village. The village offers a good range of local tavernas, restaurants, a wine bar, a convenience store and local shops selling the produce of the area. The unique geological formations known as the Peyia Sea Caves are located here, they are only accessible from the sea, either by swimming or by boat.

You could visit a different beach in this area every day of your stay! Many of which have been awarded Blue Flag status. Nearby the popular resort of Coral Bay features a variety of bars and restaurants providing wonderful Cypriot cuisine for you to try, this is closely related to familiar Greek and Turkish dishes. Bars serve a range of drinks from local beers to sophisticated cocktails. On the fabulous Coral Bay beach, the soft sand and shallow waters are perfect for paddling, swimming and water sports, or just lying back and enjoying the sun and beautiful scenery.

The ancient capital of Paphos is a short drive or bus ride away with an array of historical sites, as well as livelier nightlife. History lovers will enjoy Paphos Archaeological Park, an UNESCO world heritage site, some of the most impressive and best preserved mosaics can be found here. The ancient necropolis, Tombs of the Kings must be one of the highlights of a visit to Pathos, the tombs date back as far as the fourth century BC, although, the name is something of a misnomer as no kings are thought to be buried here. There is much more to Paphos than history, it has a stunning marina and harbour, lively night life, fabulous tavernas and restaurants, a beautiful beach and small markets selling handmade goods and local produce.

If you are looking to head further afield you can pick up one of the many excursions available to the likes of the Blue Lagoon, the Troodos Mountains for quaint villages, monasteries and wineries or head to Nicosia the capital of the island. There are several golf courses not too far from the villa, and also a golf park which is slightly more relaxed and a great family day out.

What we love

- The fabulous private pool is the perfect place to cool off in the Cyprus sunshine!
- Close proximity to some of the best beaches on the island, you could visit a different one every day of your stay!
- Each of the bedrooms features en-suite facilities making this an ideal choice for multiple families holidaying together who wish to retain some privacy

What you should know...

- There are 3 neighbouring villas in this small development so guests should keep noise to a minimum later in the evenings
- Two of the bedrooms feature twin beds and are therefore better suited to children or friends sharing
