Overview

Villa Cotarel oozes elegance, sophistication, refinement and calm. The ultimate in cool interior design, this stunning renovation doesn't just get a gold star, it gets five stars. Set in glorious natural gardens on various levels, this remarkable villa is surrounded by majestic trees standing proud in a beautiful rural location 10 minutes by car from the charming town of Tui and the border with Portugal. With boutique styling, the villa has been magically restored, combining its ancient rustic Galician style and dreamy nods from the past with trendy, contemporary flair. Gorgeous cool hues of white, cream and grey feature throughout giving a luxurious, elegant feel. Every piece of furniture and every accessory has been handpicked and looks perfect in its place. Huge floor-to-ceiling doors and windows throughout drown the living spaces and bedrooms with glorious Galician sunlight. You will find exposed stone walls, sumptuous furniture and stunning, luxurious soft furnishings in every room.

Tui is an absolute delight with a beautiful historic centre and an excellent range of gourmet dining as well as excellent shops. Tui is located south of the Pontevedra province and sits on the edge of the Minho River, opposite the Portuguese town of Valenca. The towns are connected by a nineteenth century bridge. Guests enjoy stepping over the Spanish border into Portugal.

Villa Cotarel's large living room is a total wonder with such elegance and calm. The cream sofas are superbly comfortable and look stunning against the contemporary stone floor, exposed stone walls and massive wooden ceiling beams. The feature fireplace is contemporary and very welcoming on cool nights. You will find a fabulous little reading corner, an ancient desk and other beautiful furniture. Double doors lead to a beautiful, sleek kitchen which will delight the chef in your group. It is another cavernous social space where guests can perch on the industrial style stools keeping the chef company. The cream cabinetry is in a lovely cream tone and with shaker style, built into the gorgeous stone walls. The villa also boasts a second kitchen. You will dine in style in a lovely, atmospheric space. Surrounding the villa are a selection of fabulous porches and terraces where you can dine alfresco or enjoy pre-dinner drinks.

Five of the villa's seven bedrooms are located on the upper floor with the remaining two on the ground floor. All of the bedrooms enjoy stunning, immaculate ensuite bathrooms, six with fabulous showers and the last with a bath. Even in these glorious bathrooms, you will enjoy beautiful peeks of the villa's stone walls. Three of the bedrooms boast kingsize beds and the others offer twins that are next to each other, forming super sized beds. Quality linens adorn the sumptuous beds, again all in shades of white, grey and soft ecru. The upper floor bedrooms are connected by a large balcony which overlooks the valley and swimming pool.

Villa Cotarel boasts vast totally private, stunning gardens. This remarkable, huge plot is surrounded by trees and nature. You will discover lush lawns, beautiful planting, a traditional Galician granary, a gorgeous 12m x 5m swimming pool and breathtaking valley views. You have so many choices for alfresco dining and pre-dinner drinks or lounging on quality sun beds, enjoying your holiday read and the warm Galician sun. Such bliss in sensational surroundings!

Location & Local Information

Villa Cotarel enjoys a fabulous, rural location with astonishing valley views yet is just 10 minutes from the bustling town of Tui, right on the border with Portugal. Tui itself boasts beautiful views of the Minho River separating Tui and Valenca, the Portuguese town. A busy toll road leaves Tui towards Pontevedra and Santiago de Compostela giving Villa Cotarel easy access to the westerly and northern Galician towns. Tui enjoys a compact historic quarter with a number of important, historic monuments including its beautiful Cathedral. You will discover lovely plazas brimming with restaurants and bars, some wonderful shops, the old courthouse building and ancient walls dating back to the 12th century and the reign of King Ferdinand. One of the original gates, the Pia still remains. The Paseo Fluvial is a delightful riverside walk below the old walls, along the River Minho.

From Villa Cotarel, guests can enjoy the stunning Rias Baixas. This series of four estuarine inlets, the Ria de Muros e Noia, the Ria de Arousa, the Ria de Pontevedra and the Ria de Vigo enjoy a rich marine life, beautiful rivers where you can picnic, walk or enjoy some watersports and some very pretty villages. Visitors enjoy superb seafood and delicious local wines. Pontevedra and Vigo are both enjoyable for day trips as well as the quaint albarino wine capital Cambados and trips to the offshore islands. The Rias Baixas beaches are stunning with a good range of watersports on the larger beaches and peace and intimacy on the hidden little coves. Though chilly, the waters are generally calm. Playa de la Lanzada, one of Galicia's best beaches offers over 3km of dazzling white sand and clear blue sea backed by stunning dunes. The sky lights up in all shades of pink, orange and red at sunset. The picturesque Playa Area das Pipas enjoys delightful rocks and tide pools and is lined with fragrant pine trees. The Atlantic Islands of Galicia National Park includes the dreamy Cies Islands where you can visit the famous Praia das Rodas and La Isla de Ons which boasts numerous beautiful beaches. They range from pristine, white sparkly sands to more rocky and rugged bays. The island also offers three excellent restaurants.

Pontevedra is a beautiful, well-preserved old town. Brimming with beautiful buildings, interlocking narrow lanes and picturesque plazas, it combines history, culture and style. It is a great place to shop, dine and sightsee. The town's Gothic Santa Maria la Mayor Basilica is stunning.

The delightful Vigo is famous for oysters. They are farmed on the estuary in the nearby town of Arcade and come in fresh every morning to the oyster shops on Rua da Ostras plus there are many street stalls selling them.

If you take a trip south over into Portugal, you can visit Porto, Ponte de Lima, the Parque Nacional Peneda Geres, Braga, Guimaraes, Douro or Valenca, just opposite Tui.
