

Villa Bigini

Region: Colares Sleeps: 10

Overview

Villa Bigini enjoys a magical blend of traditional furnishings and decor meeting contemporary modern living. This fabulous, sprawling holiday villa is located in a prestigious area within Sintra's Natural Park. Visitors will enjoy stunning, panoramic countryside views, total tranquillity and seclusion, yet this villa is within easy reach of many famous and fascinating Lisbon Coast attractions. Visitors enjoy a feast of beautiful palaces, castles and monuments, as well as gorgeous sandy beaches and a fantastic gastronomic scene. Golf fans will be delighted by the quality and range of championship golf courses in the area. The villa is just 7km from the stunning Praia da Adraga Beach, 8km from Sintra, 15km from the bustling town of Cascais and only 35km from Lisbon itself. It is a heavenly location where you will truly relax.

Villa Bigini enjoys a quirky design where you will find numerous lounge areas, all exquisitely furnished. With four gorgeous bedrooms sleeping 8 guests plus a room where an extra two children can sleep, Villa Bigini offers an incredible amount of space where guests can find many little nooks and crannies for a quiet read, a game of cards or pre-dinner drinks while others enjoy doing something else. It is the perfect villa for a large group with fantastic gardens and alfresco dining and lounge areas, as well as a stunning interior. Light floods into the villa through large modern windows and doors. There are fabulous contemporary touches throughout the villa, which blend perfectly with various ancient gems.

The ground floor of Villa Bigini offers the master bedroom suite with a double bed and a gorgeous contemporary ensuite bathroom with a walk-in shower. There is also a delightful twin bedroom, a family bathroom with a walk-in shower and a sitting room with a sofa bed for 2 children.

Villa Bigini is built on the hillside, so the first floor is home to the main living areas with access to the gardens, pool and terrace. The contemporary kitchen is a chef's dream with wonderful appliances and a breakfast table where guests can keep the chef company. You will definitely be able to cook up a storm here! The open plan living and dining space are wonderful, with charming furnishings and a good seating arrangement choice. The countryside views are fabulous. Huge doors open to the terrace and swimming pool.

The second floor features further two-bedroom suites which enjoy the charm of vaulted ceilings. They are immaculate with impressive interior design, and each boasts twin beds and an ensuite bathroom. One enjoys a bath and the other a walk-in shower. There is another living room that enjoys sensational views and access to a gorgeous furnished balcony. Guests are certainly spoilt for choice when it comes to relaxing in this villa!

The outside spaces of Villa Bigini are just as stunning as the interior. There are manicured lawns, mature planting beds, majestic trees, covered alfresco dining and various alfresco lounge areas. The pool is in a prime position where you will enjoy magical views of the surrounding area. The landscapes are beautiful. Sun loungers surround the pool, where you can enjoy your holiday read if you can take your eyes off the dreamy scenery. Guests will find it very hard to leave Villa Bigini, but you cannot leave the Lisbon Coast without seeing its amazing attractions.

Location & Local Information

Villa Bigini is 8km from the enthralling town of Sintra. Set in the Serra de Sintra hills, visitors will discover colourful, extravagant palaces, opulent mansions, and the ruins of an ancient castle within the pine forests. Sintra is brimming with fascinating historic buildings and charming, narrow lanes filled with quaint restaurants and cafes. The Pena Palace is one of the finest tourist attractions in Portugal and exemplifies the 19th century Romanticism style of architecture. There is an alluring mix of vividly painted terraces, mythological statues and decorative battlements, all in the lush Parque de Pena forest. It is always very busy, so you may want to pre-book tickets. You will find plenty of cafes and bars where you can eat and drink something very tasty.

The beaches of the Lisbon Coast are spectacular, with huge expanses of sand. Praia da Adraga Beach is regarded as one of Portugal's best beaches with its stunning scenery of dramatic cliffs, jagged rocks, and golden sand. The beach is 18km north of Cascais, and in between, you will discover Praia do Guincho. It is a fabulous beach combining intense surfing with dramatic, natural scenery. Guincho is situated on the Serra da Sintra National Park's western edge, protecting the fabulous beach from tourist development. The Lisbon Coast beaches list is endless, some family-friendly, and others ready for thrill-seekers wanting to surf the pounding waves. If you head towards Estoril, the other side of Cascais, there are calmer, sheltered beaches. From Guincho to Praia das Macas there are wilder conditions.

Cascais is 15km from the villa. It is a charming Portuguese fishing town with an interesting history. In the past, Cascais was the summer retreat of the Portuguese nobility. Today it is an elegant fusion of its fabulous heritage and modern tourism. Within the narrow, cobbled streets of the historic centre are museums, an imposing fort, lavish villas and charming shops and restaurants. You can enjoy waterside cocktails and delicious meals. A short train ride can take you into the centre of Lisbon or to one of the lovely beaches along the coast.

Golf fans will be delighted with the location of Villa Bigini. There are six golf courses within 20 minutes. These include Quinta da Marinha, which is set amongst beautiful pine trees and stretches down to Guincho Beach. It enjoys magical scenery with its hole number 13 descending to the sea. Definitely an Instagram worthy picture postcard of Portuguese golf! Quinta da Marinha Golf Resort also offers 10 tennis courts, 3 padel courts, 2 squash courts, a sauna, gym, indoor swimming pool, restaurants and the fantastic Marinha Equestrian Centre. Oitavos Dunes Golf is the first golf course in Europe and the second in the world to become a Gold Certified Signature Sanctuary. Penha Longa enjoys stunning panoramic views over the Sinta mountain range. Estoril is one of the oldest and best-known courses in Portugal. Quinta da Beloura and Belas also enjoy amazing reputations.
