Location & Local Information

Lelia Apartment is part of an exclusive holiday resort located along the most famous stretch of Croatia's shimmering coastline - the Dalmatian Coast, in the picturesque fishing town of Primosten. Once an island separate from the mainland, this quaint, stone-paved town has plenty to offer those wanting a relaxing and peaceful holiday; from walks through the winding streets, marvelling at the beautiful architecture, to fine-dining and enjoying some local wine in one of its restaurants or bars.

Primosten's famous Raduca beach is a must-see while you are here. A pebbled beach with clear, shallow waters, this is a popular destination for families with children - especially during the summer months when it's not unusual to see attractions such as trampolines or bouncy castles set up here. The beach is backed by a promenade featuring all manner of ice-cream parlours, cafes, and shops selling local arts and crafts, so there's always plenty to see and do in this sleepy little town.

Fine-dining is easy here thanks to the town's fantastic restaurants, offering fresh seafood, steaks, and traditional Croatian cuisine. For those who are interested in sampling the local nightlife, the Bau Bar is THE place to go for after dinner drinks and cocktails, before heading along to Aurora, one of the region's best known nightclubs, and one that regularly attracts top DJs.

Primosten is ideally located for those who want to travel further afield and explore more of the region. Nearby Trogir is one such popular destination. Located just 17 miles from the city of Split (very popular with tourists), and with a population of just over 10,000, Trogir was designated a UNESCO World Heritage site in 1997, and is home to a number of fascinating historic sites, including the Cathedral of St Lawrence, the main part of which was completed in 1250, with the bell tower being constructed between the 14th and 16th century. Visitors are able to climb the tower and enjoy the incredible views, as well as exploring the Chapel of St John within the cathedral, which has long been considered the best Renaissance site in Dalmatia. While you're in Trogir be sure to visit the Cipiko Palaces, located opposite the cathedral, that were home to the town's noble family in the 15th century, as well as the Kamerlengo Fortress on the southwestern tip of the island. Here you'll be able to climb to the height of the walls and look out over the town and out to sea

- The town of Primosten is ideally located for exploring more of the region, with regular buses running from nearby Split and Sibenik, as well private boat tours being available.

What you should know...

- Lelia Apartment is set over two storeys, so maybe not suitable for those with mobility issues
- If relaxation and picturesque walks are what holidays are about for you, Primosten is the perfect location - but be prepared to travel further afield if you're interested in seeing more 'sights', shopping, or more general hustle and bustle.
- Raduca beach is family-friendly with its shallow waters and promenade, but please be aware there is no lifeguard here.
