Location & Local Information

Lola Apartment is located along the Dalmatian Coast in the picturesque town of Primosten. Primarily known as a holiday resort, Primosten is a favourite destination for those who crave a peaceful and relaxing stay, providing the perfect 'base' for your Croatian holiday. There is easy access to the other towns, cities and sights that Dalmatia has to offer - and yet there is still plenty to enjoy in Primosten as a destination in its own right, giving you the best of both worlds.

The town is home to some fabulous fine-dining restaurants, including the popular Tavern Marina. Located right by the sea and with a penchant for sourcing locally produced ingredients, this much-lauded eatery is well-known for its mouthwatering meat and fish dishes. If it's authentic Croatian cuisine you're after, the Santa Marina restaurant offers a variety of traditional Dalmatian dishes including Peka (meat and vegetables cooked over hot coals), and Pasticada (a beef stew dish), as well as a good selection of fish dishes.

After dinner you'll be able to walk off those calories by strolling through the pretty streets of Primosten and taking in the stunning local architecture - including the 15th century, white stone Church of St George and its stunning bell tower. An equally impressive sight in the town is the Our Lady of Loretto statue - a 17 metre shrine to the Virgin Mary which is located on Gaj Hill above Primosten and offers visitors the most incredible views of this beautiful town.

If you've come to this region for the beaches, you won't be disappointed; especially when you discover the town's famous Raduca beach. This pretty pebbled beach offers breathtaking views of the Primosten peninsula, and is popular with families with young children thanks to its shallow waters, excellent nearby parking and, the attractions that are often here during the summer months, such as trampolines, inflatables and bouncy castles. The beach is backed by a promenade which is teeming with ice-cream parlours, cafes, eateries and shops selling souvenirs and local arts and crafts, so you should have no problem finding gifts to take home to remind you of your stay.
