The apartment is spacious and modern throughout, with floor to ceiling windows and doors which perfectly showcase the fabulous partial sea views and lush green Croatian landscape. Location & Local Information

Nada Apartment is located in the picturesque fishing town of Primošten. Once an island separate from the mainland, this quaint, stone-paved town has plenty to offer those wanting a relaxing and peaceful holiday; from walks through the winding streets, marvelling at the beautiful architecture, to fine-dining and enjoying some local wine in one of its many bars and restaurants. This location has long-since been considered a perfect 'base' for your holiday to the region, being just a short trip away from the more bustling 'touristy' areas. Sibenik, known as the 'gateway to the Kornati Islands' - is one such place not to overlook while you are in this part of the world. The city is almost completely constructed from the rocks, and consists of stone buildings and stairways, cobbled streets and arches. The city is simply bursting with breathtaking architecture, and It's here you'll find the famous Cathedral of St James, as well as the city museum, the impressive Franciscan Church and Monastery, and St Michael's Castle - all stunning historical sites that are well-worth visiting.

If food and drink are your passions, you couldn't be in a better place. Adriatic lobster, sea bass, squid and langoustines are all plentiful here in one of the many seafood restaurants that can be found hidden among the winding streets, and there are many local restaurants serving up authentic Croatian cuisine. Once you've worked up a thirst from all the local fare, be sure to make your way to the Winery Rak, a family run operation in the area since 1960, and which uses local Babic and Marastine grapes to produce its white, red and rose wines. Here you'll be able sample the wines in their private tasting room, before deciding on your favourites and purchasing a few bottles to take home!

Not actually located within Sibenik, but certainly close enough to be considered a local highlight, Krka National Park can be found about 15 minutes from the city centre. The park is famous for the sheer number of cascades and waterfalls, and visitors flock here to swim in the natural pond underneath the park's main attraction, the spectacular Skradinski Buk waterfall. There are activities within the park all year round, ranging from educational talks and trails and recreational and cultural events.
