Location & Local Information

Mykonos certainly adds a touch of glamour to the Greek Islands. This stunning island is brimming with gorgeous beaches, most laden with buzzy beach bars and watersports, nightclubs, a wonderful range of restaurants, cocktail bars, boutiques and delightful whitewashed villages. It is little wonder that it is a celeb mecca akin to Ibiza and Miami.

Tourlos is located on the north side of the island, just 2.5km from Mykonos Town. With its magnificent port, the stop for many cruise ships, and a smart harbour, it is very popular. The houses are freshly painted with colourful shutters and decorated with vibrant bougainvillea and other pretty flowers. Many celebrities have chosen to build luxury villas here. The Chapel of St George Spilianos, north of the harbour, is beautiful. It is built into the cavity of a rock with a lovely ambience and where you can light a candle.

The island's beaches range from wide sandy expanses full of loungers, parasols, watersports and beach bars to quieter coves. Elia, Ornos, Psarou, Paraga, Paradise, Kalafatis and Plati Gialos are all firm favourites. Elia Beach boasts Mykonos' longest sweep of sand. The rainbow flag at the end of the beach marks its LGBT stretch of sand. You can catch water taxis from Elia Beach to Platys Gialos. Paradise Beach and Super Paradise Beaches are the home of some of the island's most famous nightclubs.

As well as being a party lover and boutique shoppers paradise, Mykonos is a whitewashed, Grecian gem with lush hillsides waiting to be explored. Ano Mera is very charming and the Panagia Turlaina and Paleokastro Monasteries are centuries old buildings worth a visit.

Mykonos Town is an enchanting warren of narrow lanes covered in bougainvillea. Lined with picturesque churches, quirky art galleries, chic boutiques, jewellery shops and charming restaurants, visitors love an afternoon meander. The town's museums, the Archaeological Museum and the Aegean Maritime Museum, are interesting.
