There are many famous tourist spots on Tenerife, both for entertainment and beauty. The southern resorts offer white sandy beaches, revelry and clubbing while the dramatic highs of the mountains offer amazing views and extraordinary beauty with some of the most fabulous hiking in the whole of Spain. There are cultured port settlements, tropical forest walks, carnival celebrations, a famous water park and a range of museums and temples for modern art. Visitors can enjoy golf, cycling, diving, snorkeling, water sports, spa treatments, tennis and the island's fantastic range of dining opportunities.

Taking the cable car is the easiest way to enjoy the panorama from the peak of Mount Teide. On a clear day, the volcanic valley captures the eye and you can see the islands of La Gomera, La Palma and El Hierro. The stunning, volcanic Teide Park has to be a highlight of any visit to Tenerife.

Tenerife Espacio de las Artes is a dramatic, contemporary arts centre in Santa Cruz. The incredible building was designed by the Swiss architects and Pritzker Prize Laureates Jacques Herzog and Pierre de Meuron. Their portfolio also includes London's Tate Modern. The three galleries and stunning library display incredibly creative art, photography and installation exhibitions.

Puerto de la Cruz is home to Jardín Botánico, a magnificent botanical garden with plants from all over the world, including roses, tropical and subtropical plants, palms, herbs and a giant 200 year old Australian Moreton Bay fig. It was established in 1788.

La Laguna Old Town is close to Santa Cruz and is considered to be the cultural capital of the island. It is an important historical centre, a real step back in time with elegant buildings from the 15th-17th century. It features fine palaces, many churches and various religious buildings. One of the loveliest squares is Plaza del Adelantado, home to the town hall and a convent. Plaza del Crito boasts a lively market selling flowers and produce.

La Orotava is another beautiful town which is worth visiting. Other fantastic places to visit on this diverse island are Candelaria, an important pilgrim destination, Garachico, a beautiful little town on the north coast and Masca, Tenerife's most beautiful village set amongst superb mountain scenery.
