Location & Local Information

La Herradura is a traditional Spanish fishing village nestled amongst the mountain range and Mediterranean. Steeped in history it was where the Spanish Armada sheltered and perished in the eye of a ravaging storm.

The Moors left their stamp on the landscape and history behind in the form of a watch tower at the crest of the Cerro Gorda overlooking the village and bay. The village is only 55 minutes from Malaga Airport and 65 minutes from Granada Airport. The ski Resort of Sierra Nevada is only 115 minutes away door to slope meaning you really can sun, sea & ski in one day from November through to April.

Punta de la Mona is the exclusive headland which overlooks the bay and village and hosted the holiday homes of notable Madrid & Granadian Spanish families as well as ambassadors, famous musicians and artists.

La Herradura boasts one of the best scuba diving experiences on the Spanish coast and the surrounding sea is a protected Marine sanctuary. Private yacht and boat hire is available from Marina Del Este just 5 minutes from the villa. Nerja is just a 15-minute drive away and Malaga is 55 minutes away.

There are numerous other sporting activities available in the area to name but a few, there is kayaking, surfing, sailing, paragliding, walking, golf, off-road buggies, wind surfing, and fishing
