Region: Vale do Lobo Sleeps: 10

Overview

Barely a fifteen-minute walk to the beach, the interior of this three-storey five-bedroom villa in the exclusive Algarve beachfront resort of Vale do Lobo seamlessly combines cutting-edge design with maximum comfort. Terracotta, earth, natural stone and touches of wood have been built into the villa, matching the natural shades and textures of the region.

Begin your stay with a sit-down dinner at the six-person dining table and open up the patio doors to the private pool for that al fresco feeling. The fully-equipped American-style kitchen is light and airy and, has been fitted with floor-to-ceiling patio doors ultra-modern fittings and is furnished in earthy hues.

The sparkling white-tiled bedrooms are spread over all three levels of the villa, leaving plenty of room for privacy and personal space. The first floor holds the master bedroom, which features a king-size bed and a stunning private terrace accessible by patio doors. The room leads through a chic dressing area to an en-suite bathroom with its own corner bath and jacuzzi, perfect for those romantic Portuguese nights. The second bedroom on the first floor has a king-sized bed, an en-suite bathroom and its own balcony.

The ground floor offers a spacious and airy lounge with large patio doors, cable TV, huge white sofas and an open plan design which expands into the dining area. A twin bedroom is located on the ground floor with an adjacent bathroom and its own cable TV.

A twin bedroom and a double bedroom sit on the lower-ground floor and share a bathroom featuring an overhead shower. The rooms get plenty of natural sunlight and have patio doors leading to the outside of the villa. Each bedroom is designed around elegant shades of white and beige and gets lots of sunlight. No matter which room you choose, you're sure to start your day with the morning sun streaming through the windows whilst you recline with a homemade coffee from the coffee machine.

The villa comes with its own stunning private pool and measures approximately 9m x 5m. Surrounding the pool is a paved patio area with plenty of sun loungers for sun lovers. The pool-side shower has hot and cold running water, and the area is surrounded by a high fence for privacy.

As night falls, indulge in some outdoor dining with both a brick-built barbecue and gas barbeque at an outdoor dining area that seats eight.

The resort has twenty-four-hour onsite security for your peace of mind.

With everything taken care of, you're sure to leave feeling refreshed and rejuvenated.

Location & Local Information

The villa is part of the renowned Vale do Lobo beachfront resort, a gated community that combines the stunning natural scenery of the region with the ultimate in luxurious comfort.

An iconic fixture of the Algarve, the resort has two private golf courses, which are sure to keep you pleasantly active with a calendar of year-round competitions and tournaments. The course is set amongst pine trees and lakes, and its cliff-top carryover has become one of the world's most famous golfing images.

Golf fans can travel light, with club, buggy and trolley rental available at the resort. You'll also find a golf shop, Golf Academy, fitness centre, changing facilities and lockers in the Clubhouse. Finish off your day by soaking up the panoramic views from Spikes restaurant, which serves up the Mediterranean and modern European food, making it popular with golfers and non-golfers alike.

When it comes to eating out, Vale do Lobo caters to every mood. Fifteen restaurants serving up international and European cuisine sit within the landscaped gardens of the community, so whether you want sundowners by the beach or brunch in the greenery, you're certain to be spoiled for choice.

Wellness fans will be looked after at the Royal Spa. The luxury wellness centre offers facials, massages, body treatments and holistic therapies. Beauty treatments and massages are also available at your accommodation.

For the active relaxers, there's an array of wellness classes. Take your pick from yoga, core or pilates, or head over to the well-equipped Tennis Academy to practice your technique if you want to step things up, a notched head outdoors for HIIT and Bootcamp, set amongst the lush greenery.

The resort has made sure to provide everything you could possibly need, so many visitors choose to remain on the resort for their whole holiday. For those who want to explore further afield, there's Faro, the capital of the Algarve and home to the winding, cobbled roads of the old town which is surrounded by historic Roman walls. Daily markets sell fresh local produce, as well as handmade crafts and clothing specific to the region. Grab a picnic and head to Praia de Faro for a change in beach scenery, or take a walk along the marina and soak up the European cafe culture.

Further out is the Ludo Hiking Trail, a stunning nature track that gets you up close to the salt pools of Rio Formosa and all its wildlife. The track is a birdwatcher's paradise with flocks of flamingos and Spoonbills year-round. The track is relatively easy, coming in at 7km and will take approximately three to four hours.
