

Casa Mijas

Region: Mijas Sleeps: 12

Overview

You are in for a treat if you make a booking at Casa Mijas! This luxurious, contemporary six bedroom villa enjoys a privileged position nestled in the hills near the quaint and picturesque village of Mijas Pueblo. Sleeping 12 guests in superb comfort, the villa boasts stunning mountainous landscapes and azure seascapes and sensational interior design.

The gorgeous, dazzling whitewashed village of Mijas Pueblo sits 10 km from the sea with a warren of narrow cobbled streets. It offers an unmistakable relaxed vibe and a passion for all things festive. Many artists and writers have made it their home. The views from this extremely pretty village are truly exceptional. If guests can drag themselves from this delightful spot and their luxurious haven, the delights of Marbella and Malaga are just moments away!

Casa Mijas is built over four levels, making the most of the amazing vistas, and offering outstanding entertainment spaces. You will very quickly appreciate the attention to detail and the fabulous, handpicked furnishings and accessories. Every piece of furniture is unique, offering a very distinct, welcoming ambience to this magical villa. The villa was designed in collaboration with Sybartun, an artistic furnishing specialist, renowned for working directly with local artisans in Southeast Asia. Throughout the villa, you will find intricate carved wooden furnishings and stunning soft furnishings alongside contemporary luxury and more than a few relaxed Buddas! There is a certain quirkiness that will bring a smile to your faces. The villa has recently been renovated with contemporary wonder though many of the original features and fireplaces were retained and enjoy the authenticity of this fabulous Spanish finca.

The ground floor of Casa Mijas is home to a stunning, open plan living space. It boasts a gorgeous living area offering unique wooden sofas, a feature fire and a large television offering all your favourite channels. The sofas are works of art in themselves with fantastic, contemporary carpentry and plush white cushions. The kitchen is a warm wood and grey delight with a sociable island and top notch appliances. Dinner can be taken at the beautiful circular table or alfresco on the terrace. A whole wall of sliding bifold doors open from the living room to a spectacular terrace. A superb, shaded lounge suite sits quietly offering astounding views of the Sierra de Mijas mountains and the shimmering Mediterranean Sea. The terrace is brimming with huge palms and banana trees in pots that frame these magical vistas.

You will discover three lavish bedroom suites on the first floor, each uniquely designed with stunning natural elements offering a sense of effortless exclusivity to the dreamy spaces. Another expansive entertaining terrace occupies the first floor. The villa's fabulous heated swimming pool is surrounded by Balinese sun loungers, day beds and a grassy bank, perfect for a private yoga session. Guests can enjoy their favourite tunes on the Sonos sound system. Like the interiors, every item of furniture is absolutely stunning and perfectly placed. To the far right of the terrace, you will find a contemporary fire pit and bench seating perfect for cocktails while watching the sky change into ravishing colours at sunset or for stargazing and snuggles with the magic of the mountains. The terrace also houses a handy utility room for laundry and an extra fridge-freezer.

A further three bedroom suites are found on the third level, all enjoying dreamy views, superior linens and extravagant furnishings. These lavish bedrooms open directly onto another furnished terrace. Five of Casa Mijas' bedrooms are doubles and the remaining bedroom offers twin beds which are placed next to each other and a sofa bed. The ensuite bathrooms that every room enjoys are contemporary gems, all luxurious with the very best of fittings. You will not have to draw straws for bedrooms at Casa Mijas. Every guest will love their private space and have direct access to a terrace.

The fourth and lowest level of the property houses the biodynamic garden, a very pretty spot.

One thing is for sure, you will not want to leave this heavenly paradise. There are so many beautiful spots, each with its own unique furniture and each with sensational panoramic mountain and sea views.

Location & Local Information

Mijas Pueblo is a beautiful whitewashed village, 10 km from the sea, between Marbella and Malaga. It is a warren of narrow cobbled streets brimming with cute cafes, restaurants and shops. Many artists and writers have made it their home. In the charming craft shops you will find some wonderful handmade pottery, paintings and prints. It is an easy place to come away with a few souvenirs. The views from this extremely pretty village are truly exceptional. If guests can drag themselves from this delightful spot and their luxurious haven, the delights of Marbella are just moments away!

Malaga is a fantastic, very popular destination with an historic centre attracting more visitors than ever to its handsome streets. It boasts a vibrant gastronomic scene, fine museums, boutique shops and lively streets, bustling with cafes and tapas bars. As the birthplace of Pablo Picasso, one of Malaga's main attractions is the museum dedicated to him that is housed within the beautifully restored Buenavista Palace. Another of the best attractions in Malaga is Alcazaba which was built between 1057 and 1063, probably the most important military fortification remaining from the Hispanic-Arabic period. Malaga is now such a foodie destination with the Mercado Central de Atarazanas very popular. This indoor farmers market is bursting with the brilliant colours and smells of fresh fruits and vegetables and local specialities such as almonds, anchovies and olives. The presentations are stunning and the building itself offers stained glass windows and iron work inspired by Les Halles in Paris. You can order tapas and enjoy amazing wines. Everything is delicious in Malaga from the humble tapas to the extravagant Michelin star restaurants. The striking, modern Port of Malaga is lined with upmarket restaurants and bars. A visit to the majestic Malaga Cathedral is a must! The artwork and architecture are magnificent. There are tours taking you up onto the roof where you can enjoy the sensational 360 degree views over the city. Not to be missed are some of the outstanding museums, including the Pablo Picasso Museum where you can learn about his life and enjoy the art.

For Mediterranean glamour, Marbella holds its own with the French Riviera and other hot-spot destinations in Europe. Marbella has everything you want from a luxury beach destination, Michelin-starred restaurants, manicured, challenging golf courses, marinas bustling with high-end yachts, chic, designer boutiques and never-ending golden sandy beaches. Marbella and its close neighbour Puerto Banus are renowned for glitzy entertainment, culture, fantastic gastronomy and boutique shopping. Plaza de los Naranjos, the old part of Marbella is beguiling with Arabic characteristics and overflowing balconies adorned with beautiful flowers. The narrow streets surrounding the beautiful plazas are full of chic bars and restaurants and charming shops offering souvenirs, olive oil, local pottery and lace. Plaza de la Iglesia is very beautiful and often hosts markets and concerts.

Puerto Banus was designed and built in 1970 by local property developer Jose Banus as a luxury marina and shopping complex. The shops and restaurants reflect the expensive lifestyle of its visitors. If you enjoy people watching, you will never be short of popstars or reality TV stars to spot during the summer months. There are also plenty of Ferraris and luxury yachts to admire. Sala Beach Club and Ocean Club Marbella are just two of the luxury beach clubs in Puerto Banus where you can indulge in champagne and gourmet lunches, all served by attentive staff. Within Ocean Club Marbella there are a range of exclusive shops, a wellness spa and massage, swimming pool, restaurant, 4 bars and a chill-out zone.

Gibraltar, with its Palladian architecture and camera-hogging Barbary Macaques, makes an interesting break from Marbella. The Pillars of Hercules with fantastic views of North Africa's Morocco, the huge caverns of St Michael's Cave, the Skywalk lookout at the top of the rock and the Barbary Macaque apes are all Instagrammable photo opportunities. Some guests also like to nip over to the mythical Tangiers or escape to the deserted beaches of the Atlantic coastline of Cadiz.

San Pedro has a relaxed ambience though there is plenty to do. The wide, palm-lined boulevard leads to the glorious beach and the beautifully tiled promenade. Lush gardens are on one side of the promenade and the sandy banks on the other. There are many beach bars, most specialising in true Mediterranean cuisine including paella, fresh fish and of course tapas. San Pedro has some interesting architecture including the Roman baths, the Paleochristian Basilica Church and Necropolis and the Parish Church of San Pedro Alcantara. The central plaza is great for a stroll. The narrow streets surrounding it are packed with intriguing small shops, sidewalk cafes and bars.
