Location & Local Information

In a beautiful tranquil location, surrounded by nature and just minutes away from the coast, Casa Verdizela is perfectly placed to enjoy the delights of this wonderful region.

The Aroeira golf resort is located in Herdade da Aroeira, on the Costa de Caparica and is only 25km from the centre of Lisbon. Surrounded by a scenic pine forest, Aroeira I golf course has been host to the Portuguese open twice and enjoys an excellent reputation. If you expert golfers want to test your ability, the Aroeira II golf course opened in 2000 and designed by Donald Steel, includes several water hazards and requires skill and patience to navigate.

The resort has wonderful amenities. There are golf practice facilities and a golf school, a large tropical outdoor pool and four tennis courts. You can eat or drink at the friendly clubhouse, and there is a supermarket and Pharmacy on site.

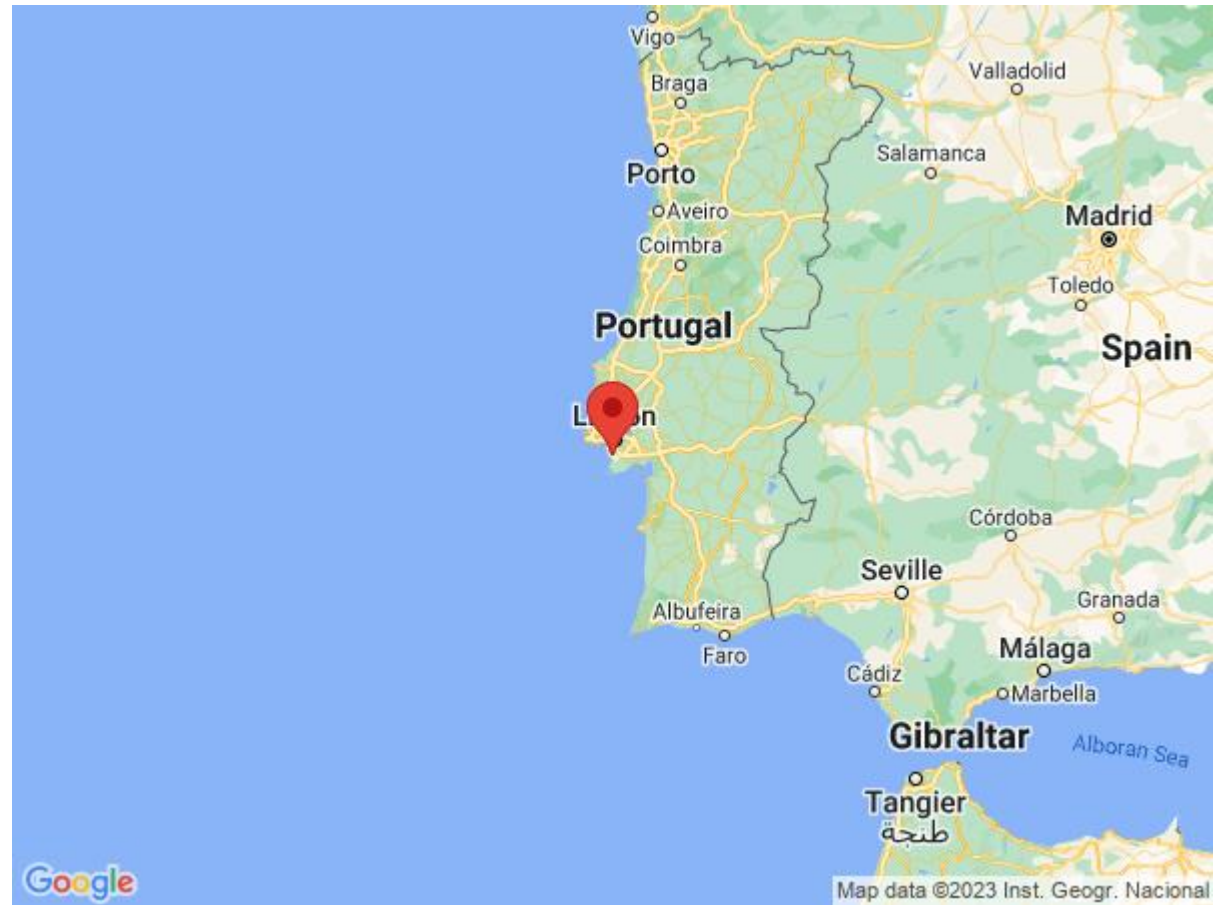

You are going to be spoilt for choice at the selection of wonderful beaches just a short drive away. Whatever type of sun worshiper you are, there is the perfect beach for you close to hand!

Your closest beach is Fonte da Telha, a huge beautiful natural beach with white sand, dunes and surrounding lush vegetation. Set close to a charming fishing village, it retains the traditional charm, and there are a number of good local restaurants. This is a great beach for walking and surfing and is a popular weekend destination being only a 15-minute drive from Lisbon, but even in the peak season, you can walk past the crowds to find plenty of space to enjoy the sand, clear, cool waters and breath-taking sunsets.

Lisbon is only a short drive away and is an amazing city to visit. You can shop until you drop and a great way to see its fabulous architecture and colourful houses is to take a ride on one of the famous trams.

A charming area to visit is the Alfama neighbourhood which has a village feel with its cobbled streets and unique shops, and it gives you a sense of Lisbon's history. St George's Castle looks down over Lisbon and is visible throughout the city. This historical landmark offers spectacular views and has a beautiful castle garden well worth a visit. For the foodies and wine experts, Lisbon is a dream destination, there are excellent tours available, but just by getting lost and exploring, you are bound to come across some hidden delights!

A fabulous way to explore the region is to take a scenic drive across the Parque Natural Da Arrabida (Arrabida Natural Park). This protected park is over 500 meters high and includes the Serra de Arrabida (the hills between Setubal, Palmela and Sesimbra), the limestone cliffs, the turquoise waters, and the lush green vegetation covering the Arrábida mountain range make for a stunning visual display. You might catch a glimpse of the resident colony of dolphins from the fabulous view of the Sado river estuary. The Serra da Arrabida coastline has a number of spectacular beaches to stop off at. Praia Figueirinha is the largest and most accessible beach within the park, with plenty of shade, parking and modern facilities.

Casa Verdizela is a relaxing, tranquil retreat, a wonderful base to make the most of this fabulous area famed for its golf, food and wine, stunning scenery and fabulous beaches.
