

Maison Emile

Region: Provence-Alpes Sleeps: 18

Overview

In an idyllic pocket of Provence, surrounded by rich countryside and set in nine acres of land sits Maison Emile. With medieval towns nearby and outstanding natural beauty all around, this enchanting house offers the best of rural Provençal living.

Once a 17th-century farmhouse, Maison Emile has been lovingly converted into a laid-back yet elegant home featuring a large dining room, charming country-style kitchen and cosy living room. Here you will find the classic blue shutters, terracotta roof, wooden beams and stone walls that are so typical of dwellings in this region.

Up to 18 guests can be accommodated in nine tastefully decorated bedrooms spread across the main house and adjoining barn. Two of the barn's bedrooms are accessible via the central courtyard while the other two are accessed from the living room and can be configured as twin beds or doubles to suit the needs of your group.

Outside, there are exquisite gardens and a meadow filled with cherry, fig, almond, apple and pear trees. While away the days basking in the sunshine, playing boules and table tennis and taking refreshing dips in the pool. In the evenings fire up the barbecue and enjoy a meal on the outdoor terrace, perhaps before hitting a few balls on the floodlight tennis court.

The stunning market town of L'Isle-sur-la-Sorgue is just a 10-minute drive away. Known for its antique stalls and canals, it's a lovely place to wander around and boasts many little waterside cafés, restaurants and boutiques, plus useful supermarkets for stocking up.

Medieval Carpentras is also known for its popular street markets and is 25km away, while the historic city of Avignon can be reached by car in just 45 minutes. Lively and packed full of interesting things to do and places to eat, it's a fantastic city to visit.

A 37km drive takes you to the Alpilles Natural Regional Parc where you can marvel at the region's incredible scenery and immerse yourself in nature as you hike along forest trails. And to witness more of Provence's famous landscapes, head to the shockingly purple lavender fields of Sault, just under an hour's drive from Maison Emile.

Location & Local Information

Provence is littered with picturesque hilltop villages and many of the most scenic can be easily reached from Maison Emile.

Built on a network of canals with pretty footbridges, waterside cafés and timeworn mills, L'Isle-sur-la-Sorgue is packed with character and charm. Just a 10-minute drive away, there are convenient amenities like boulangeries and supermarkets in addition to a great selection of restaurants for nights spent eating out. Be sure to visit on a Sunday to experience the town's renowned antiques market and perhaps pick out a souvenir!

A little further away sits Carpentras, another town with a bustling flea market. Held on a Friday, some 350 stalls stock everything from black truffles to shoes. The town, which can be reached by car in 30 minutes, is also filled with medieval relics, including the Orange Gateway and 15th-century Saint Siffrein Cathedral.

Just 36km away, Châteauneuf-du-Pape is crammed full of cellars and shops selling bottles of the famous red wine and hosting tasting sessions. As well as wine, the fortified village also boasts an impressive 14th-century castle. Enjoy sweeping views of the vineyards below from its ramparts.

Saint-Rémy-de-Provence, once home to legendary painter Vincent Van Gogh, is 35km away and well worth a trip, while Apt, known for its delicious cuisine, can be reached in 30km.

Two of Provence's most dynamic cities, Avignon and Arles, are just 37km and 58km away respectively. With two UNESCO World Heritage Sites and a lively centre, Avignon is a fascinating place to visit. Soak up the city's atmosphere from the main Place de l'Horloge or stroll around the bohemian quarter next to the River Sorgue, where you can find live music, trendy bars and wonderful restaurants.

Arles, which is known for inspiring many of Van Gogh's paintings, features a fantastic Saturday market and many historic treasures, including a Roman amphitheatre and Roman baths.

As well as delightful towns and enthralling cities, this region offers scenic countryside and unspoilt landscapes. Discover the magnificent lavender fields at Sault, just 48km away, and immerse yourself in nature as you hike through the forests and ravines at Parc Naturel Regional des Alpilles, 37km away. The Luberon range, which can be explored on foot or by bike, is a 40-minute car journey away and offers exquisite natural beauty.
