PGA Catalunya Golf and Wellness Resort is located in Caldes de Malavella, just south of Girona and next to the stunning Costa Brava coastline. The resort boasts two award-winning, world-class golf courses which are consistently ranked among the best in Europe. There is also a sensational wellness spa with the best treatments you could imagine, a selection of incredible restaurants, family friendly adventure parks and all of this set in glorious countryside. The spectacular and imposing Stadium Golf Course was opened in 1999 and ranks No 1 in Spain. Home to the Spanish Open on numerous occasions, it enjoys a superb natural setting and is extremely popular. For a slightly kinder challenge, the Tour Course, designed by Angel Gallardo and Neil Coles, enjoys excellent water hazards amongst fragrant pine trees. The resort offers well-equipped, hi-tech practice facilities in their state-of-the-art Golf Hub. The resort's Wellness Beyond Spa offers an holistic approach to pure relaxation leaving long-lasting benefits for the mind, body and soul. With indulgent massages, technology-led treatments and a super impressive gym, the Wellness Centre is so much more than a spa. Guests staying at Villa Vines can enjoy five excellent dining options without even leaving the resort. The whole family is looked after with a myriad of outdoor activities within the picturesque, natural setting including a Forest Park zipwire, a family adventure park, cycling, trekking and horse riding.

Villa Vines is a luxurious, contemporary wonder. Built on a plot of more than 2,400 sqm, this spectacular villa is designed by the internationally renowned architect Rich Hywel Evans of Studio RHE. With top notch materials, fantastic use of glass and sensational open spaces, the villa is the height of luxury brimming with sumptuous, modern furnishings and vibrant artwork. It five dazzling white bedrooms all enjoy glorious ensuite bathrooms with state-of-the-art fittings as well as gorgeous colour pops, be it a bright pink upholstered kingsize bed or beautiful scatter cushions. The exclusive master suite is designed as a flying structure offering sensational 180 degree views of the estate, golf course and the majestic Montseny mountains, while at the same time ensuring total privacy. The remaining four bedrooms are located on the ground floor, all with access to the beautiful garden.

The villa's 80 sqm living and dining room elegantly combines traditional Mediterranean elements with trendy modernity. A contemporary feature fire divides the lounge and dining area and full walls of glass offer brilliant views as well as flooding the spaces with natural light. The furnishings are outstanding and very comfortable. The white glossy kitchen offers the very best of appliances and a sociable space.

Also on the ground floor, guests enjoy a fabulous wellness suite with a professional massage room, jacuzzi, sauna and fitness area.

The outside spaces of Villa Vines are superb. The villa has been cleverly designed to blend naturally into the spectacular landscape with the living spaces opening onto a vast terrace and its two-sided infinity swimming pool. A unique island offers an exquisite day bed, a truly relaxing experience surrounded by crystal clear water. Alfresco dining can be enjoyed on the terrace, shaded by a gorgeous pergola. An outstanding barbecue and kitchen area is provided. There are many lovely spots where you can count your blessings and watch glorious sunsets while enjoying some very chilled wine. Guests can request additional treats for a supplement including private chefs, a masseuse, personal wine cellar, golf buggy rental, excursions and transfers. Location & Local Information

Villa Vines is located on the seriously impressive PGA Catalunya Golf and Wellness Resort in Caldes de Malavella, just south of Girona and within minutes of the stunning Costa Brava coastline. The resort enjoys a world renowned reputation as a leading golf and wellness resort, with a significant list of technology led programmes. Sports recovery treatments include Cryotherapy, Oxygen Chamber Therapy, Photo Bio Modulation and IV infusions. There are traditional body treatments and the golf programme is absolutely fantastic. Added to this you will find gym, tennis and paddle tennis courts, stunningly beautiful grounds and forests with hiking and biking paths and a superb collection of dining opportunities. The restaurants match the famed local gastronomic scene of Catalonia though in addition, the surrounding area is brimming with Michelin-starred chefs making this region as one of the most extraordinary dining destinations in Europe.

Villa Vines is located just 50 minutes from Barcelona and just 10 minutes from the beautiful, historic city of Girona. Guests can explore the Maresme and Costa Brava coastlines, visit authentic ancient villages and discover the mountain scenery. It is close to the centre of Lloret de Mar, one of Spain's busiest holiday resorts. As well as a vibrant nightlife, theme parks and much entertainment, it offers wonderful landscapes and plenty of delightful walks along the coast or through the forest. The narrow winding streets of the Old Town are very enjoyable, brimming with shops, bars and restaurants, as are the famous landscaped Santa Clotilde Gardens, filled with fountains, ponds and beautiful sculptures. Boasting an attractive historic centre and beautiful, fascinating buildings, visitors can explore and learn about the history of the town. The Church of Sant Roma is fabulous. The front of the church is in Gothic style built between 1509 and 1522 but inside you will see the art of the Catalan modernism movement. Located on the top of the cliff between Cala Boadella and Fenals Beach, Santa Clotilde Gardens are one of Lloret de Mar's best kept treasures. Construction on the gardens began in 1917 when the Marquis Roviralta met Clotilde Rocamora but sadly she died before they were complete. He later married his second wife and work resumed though the gardens carry Clotilde's name. There are some wonderful festivals and events in the gardens including the Clon Festival concert series and the Lloret Outdoor Summer Festival. Throughout Lloret de Mar, visitors enjoy many other festivals and fairs including the Fair of the Americans, Fenals de Musica at Fenals Beach, the Medieval Fair and the annual Carnival. The town comes alive in a thousand colours with parades, costumes, parties and music during the Lloret Carnival. Those that love the outdoors can take to many of the footpaths that trace their way along the coastline or wind their way into the forests. Two sections of the CR92 Mediterranean Trail pass through the town.

Passing through many agricultural and craft-focused villages, Girona is Northern Catalonia's largest city, again boasting a fascinating history. It is a fabulous jewellery box of galleries, museums, Gothic churches and a wonderful dining scene, all sprinkled along a web of cobbled lanes and medieval walls. The Riu Onyar separates the walkable historic centre from the gleaming commercial centre on the west.

Guests also enjoying heading to Catalonia's Pyrenees, an all-season playground offering raw natural beauty, fantastic skiing and snowboarding, incredible hiking paths to the jewel-like lakes and valleys of the Parc Nacional d'Aiguestortes i Estancy de Sant Maurici, the low-lying countryside of Cerdanya and the dramatic climbing terrain of the Serra del Cadí. With majestic scenery, plunging valleys, snow-dusted peaks, thousand-year-old monasteries, outstanding Romanesque architecture and fabulous gastronomy, hikes within the Catalan Pyrenees uncover so many delights.

Banyoles Lake is where the 1992 Olympic rowing races took place. It is an excellent location for picnics. The neighbouring town of La Bisbal is the centre of Catalonia's ceramics industry so a good place to pick up a few souvenirs. It is also home to the Palace Castle of the Bishops of Girona.

If you would like to discover more of the Costa Brava coastline, you can head to the idyllic town of Tamariu, embraced by pine clad headlands or the popular, upmarket Llafranc. It is easy to see why it attracts film stars, artists and the rich. Llafranc boasts a fantastic cocktail of chic restaurants and bars, authentic fishing boats, inviting turquoise waters and luxury yachts, all surrounded by glorious fragrant pine trees.
