Nestled in picturesque surroundings and boasting stunning views across the glittering blue of the Adriatic and its islands, Villa Cesara features everything you'll need to enjoy a thoroughly memorable holiday.

The beautiful stone exterior of Villa Cesara creates a warm, country-cottage aesthetic, and that is mirrored inside with decor that gives an authentic, rustic feel. High-end, contemporary furnishings contrast perfectly for a fresh, clean, modern look, while subtle, nautical-themed touches present in the artwork give a nod to your coastal surroundings. The ground floor is neat and open plan, consisting of a cosy living area with flat screen satellite TV and a comfy, dark grey corner sofa with plush red and white cushions, a dining area for 4, and a well-equipped kitchen. Here you'll find everything you'll need to prepare scrumptious family meals, including an oven and hob, a microwave, toaster and coffee machine.

Both bedrooms are bright and airy, with fresh, white decor, flat screen TVs, storage space, and spectacular views across the sea. There are also two bathrooms in the villa, modern throughout with glass shower cubicles, white suites, and storage for towels and toiletries.

Stepping out of the villa and onto the patio you'll discover your private pool with massage tubes and a fountain, as well as an outdoor lounge area - the ideal place for soaking up the sun with a glass of something bubbly - as well as a relaxing sundeck with loungers and parasols. Alfresco meals are an absolute must if you're staying at Villa Cesara; there's a covered dining area, and impressive BBQ facilities, perfect for rustling up a feast to enjoy on a lazy afternoon, or on a warm evening as the sun sets over the Adriatic.

Location & Local Information

The picturesque farming and fishing village of Brescine is a peaceful holiday location, with a small population, pretty streets and a bay with its own hidden beach. The village is located near to Trsteno, a small but beautiful up-and-coming tourist destination that is well worth a visit while you are holidaying in the region. The Trsteno Arboretum is one of the oldest in Europe and is featured in the popular TV show, Game Of Thrones as the garden in King's Landing (also known as the Red Keep Palace Gardens). The Arboretum is popular with tourists thanks to its stunning views of the coast, white-stone walking paths, lush greenery and stone sculptures. Covering an area of over 25 hectares, the garden was established near the end of the 15th century and is the number one tourist attraction for visitors to Trsteno.

Orasac, which is just 6km away from the village of Brescine, is the place to go for fine dining during your stay. Offering everything from light salads to fresh seafood, delicious lamb and steak dishes, and everything in between, you'll be spoiled for choice here when it comes to finding something to tempt the taste buds. 'Cilantro' serves the very best in Mediterranean cuisine, and is famous for its Risotto, pasta and prawn dishes. You'll find an excellent and varied children's menu here, making it a popular choice with families who need to cater for all ages. Meat lovers will enjoy the international menu at the aptly-named 'Butcher's Grill', well-known in the area for its ribeye steaks, pork dishes and selection of fine wines.

Another popular nearby destination is Dubrovnik Old Town, another film location for Game Of Thrones, but popular with visitors whether they are fans of the show or not! Enclosed by medieval walls and offering views of the Old Port, here you'll find plenty of bars, seafood restaurants and eateries, as well as souvenir shops and fashion stores. At the Cultural History Museum in the Gothic-style Rector's Palace, you'll be able to soak up the country's history and culture thanks to displays of art, weapons and photos, before taking a stroll along the pedestrianised Stradun street to seek out ice-creams, fresh fruit smoothies, and other refreshments.
