Benitses, an old fishing village which has expanded into a buzzy tourist resort, lies roughly 12km south of Corfu Town. It boasts a bustling, colourful harbour, cobbled alleyways, Roman Baths, a delightfully pebble and shingle beach, a vast array of charming restaurants and bars and a fascinating shell museum.

Guests enjoy a very tranquil, relaxed stay at Villa Jacaranda Mauve. The ground floor of the villa offers a fully equipped, smart modern kitchen, a dining room for 6 which opens onto a large cobbled terrace, an accessible bathroom and a double bedroom with a kingsize bed which also opens onto the terrace. It is a very pretty sight. Visitors enjoy a good range of shops, restaurants and bars.

Corfu is one of the most beautiful, lush green islands of Greece. With countless beaches, a few hundred villages, nearly a thousand churches, stunning scenery stretching from the crystal clear dazzling sea to the mountains, valleys, lagoons, waterfalls, forests and numerous caves, it is a dream destination. The fauna and flora is world famous due to the Durrell family and especially since the TV series. Together with fantastic cuisine, excellent shopping and an historic main town brimming with Venetian architecture and charm, it has something for everyone.

Corfu Town or Kerkyra as it is otherwise known, is one of the most beautiful, graceful and elegant towns in Greece. Though seventh in size, it is one of the most populated in the whole of the Ionian Islands. The town's stunning architecture has many influences including Sicilian, Venetian, French and English. Corfu Town is brimming with elegant mansions, magnificent palaces, beautiful squares, no fewer than 39 churches and majestic fortresses. You should not miss The Liston and the Church of Saint Spiridon. The entire Old Town is declared a UNESCO World Heritage site, a tightly-packed warren of winding lanes bursting with lively bars, unique shops and fine restaurants. You will also see timeless alleys with the day's washing stretching from balcony to balcony. It is beautiful.

The beautiful, atmospheric resort of Kassiopi is located in the lively north eastern corner of Corfu. With the dramatic Mount Pantokrator overlooking the resort and with a stunning harbour, this once quiet fishing village is very popular and very attractive. It boasts charming narrow streets overlooked by the ruins of an ancient Byzantine castle and breathtaking views out to sea towards the Albanian coast. There is a gorgeous walk you can take around the headland.
