Overview

This dream of a holiday home nestles in the heart of Provence, walking distance from a bustling and colourful village and a short drive to the centre of alluring Aix-en-Provence.

The hugely characterful and air conditioned Le Mas de Vinci has seven gorgeous bedrooms, all with a bath or shower. Despite its modern comforts, the house remains full of traditional rustic charm with its wooden ceilings and doors, stone fireplace and carefully chosen furnishings.

There is a cinema room for when the sun goes down and a kitchen and a dining area convivially seating up to 14 guests, leading to a lovely terrace for al-fresco meals. Stroll into the large romantic gardens luxuriously filled with verdant trees, Mediterranean shrubs and birdsong to discover the swimming pool, terraces, charming stone fountain, pond and little stream.

So many of the regions of glorious Provence are accessible from this magnificent holiday home, including the hills, forests, mountains and idyllic perched villages of the Luberon and Les Alpilles. Discover why Cézanne loved the colour and light of Aix-en-Provence or head to the Étang de Berre beaches in Rognac or the azure coloured sea at Marseille.
