

La Residence

Region: French Riviera (Cote D'Azur) Sleeps: 12

Overview

A prestigious large villa just outside Monaco, La Residence will impress you with its elegance, space and stunning views.

Imagine enjoying breakfast on your beautiful terrace, overlooking the rooftops towards the azure-coloured sea, before dipping into the refreshing swimming pool that can be heated upon request. The gardens are superb with space to relax on the poolside sun-loungers, sip a coffee on a shaded terrace, play table tennis and dine al-fresco with loved ones, always surrounded by majestic trees and glorious vistas. The sunsets in the evening are especially divine.

The interiors are also exquisite – expect plush furnishings and high-end features such as air-conditioning, a brilliantly equipped gym and fantastic cinema room. The six luxurious bedrooms can be found across the main villa and guest house, each with a contemporary bath or shower room, allowing up to twelve guests to stay in this magnificent abode.

On the edge of Cap d'Ail, wander down the hill for your morning pastries and groceries and it's just a short drive to a selection of restaurants and beaches. Monaco is only a 5-minute drive away, an incredible principality with four distinct districts including the charming old town and the glamorous Monte Carlo. Shop to your hearts delight across markets and boutiques, visit fascinating museums and soak up the unique ambience of this extraordinary corner of the French Riviera.

You're also perfectly placed with easy reach of Nice, Antibes and Cannes as well as the picturesque seaside resorts of Beaulieu and Menton. Then there's idyllic villages close by such as La Turbie and hilltop Èze and some extraordinary walking trails – keen hikers should head to Tête de Chien for magnificent views of Cap d'Ail, Monaco and beyond.

Location & Local Information

On the French Riviera just outside Monaco, La Residence is set in an elevated position only a short walk from Cap d'Ail's boulangerie and shops. It's a great location for exploring the Côte d'Azur - Nice can be reached in around 20 minutes as the villa is conveniently placed just below the road that connects Monaco to the A8 autoroute and beyond.

It's just a 5-minute drive across to Monaco, an incredible principality with four districts including the old town where you can stroll a warren of picturesque lanes and discover beautiful buildings such as St Nicholas Cathedral and Place du Palais. Spend time in Monte-Carlo and the famous Place du Casino to experience the high-life or head to the Codamine district and visit the atmospheric daily market where you can pick up all sorts of Provençal delights. Keen shoppers will also love the designer names on show in many of the boutiques found across Monaco.

Cap d'Ail is known to be home to many picturesque beaches, all just a short distance from your villa. Plage Marquet has shallow, clear waters and summer watersports such as kayaking and catamarans whilst there are other stunning beaches dotted along this part of the Côte d'Azur accessed via little paths, rocks and steps.

Further along the coast towards Nice, other beautiful French resorts include Èze-sur-Mer and Beaulieu or discover the beauty of Saint-Jean-Cap-Ferrat with its amazing walking paths and coastal scenery. In the other direction, Menton is a pretty seaside town close to the Italian border that was especially loved by British aristocracy in the 19th century.

Nice is of course another fine day out with its galleries, shops and markets or continue onwards to other gems of the French Riviera such as Antibes and Cannes, around an hour by car (or train). Not to mention many idyllic villages inland from nearby Èze to St Paul de Vence, Mougins and even Grasse a little further.

The picturesque village of La Turbie, around 6km away, is home to the Michelin starred Hostellerie Jerome as well as the impressive remains of Roman Trophee d'Auguste and its small museum. There are some beautiful walks from the village such as towards Tête de Chien with an amazing viewpoint of Monaco and then down to Cap-d'Ail. The GR51 Côte d'Azur walking route passes through the village and it's a popular area for rock-climbers too.
