Location & Local Information

Deluxe Cielo is located on the hillside in Bonaire, a beautiful, exclusive and quiet residential area with two romantic little beaches close the villa. Playa de Sant Pere is a charming, peaceful beach with fine sand, crystal clear water and Playa de Sant Joan, equally lovely, is just around the corner.

The tourist hub of Alcudia is just minutes from the villa in the car, as is Port d'Alcudia with its seven mile long Blue Flag beach. Alcudia's picturesque marina is the waterside setting for many trendy bars and restaurants. It is a buzzy hub of activity with fun excursions running from it, including day trips to Menorca, dolphin watching tours and glass-bottomed boats. Alcudia Old Town is wonderfully atmospheric for an evening out. It is romantic and charming with its narrow cobbled streets, Romeo and Juliet balconies, cozy, authentic cafes, unique little boutiques, fantastic restaurants and tapas bars and its vibrant open-air market. Its Roman ruins and museum, just outside the walls, are very interesting. Alcudia Old Town hosts many cultural events including traditional fiestas and classical music festivals. Visitors can walk around the entire perimeter of the medieval walls, either on the inside using the Cami de Ronde route or on the outside, using what has now become a garden walk. From the top of the walls, you can enjoy wonderful panoramic views of the Bay of Pollensa. Alcudia Old Town boasts an incredible history. The Romans brought an end to piracy and built the town but later, Alcudia was destroyed in the 6th century. The town returned to greatness under the Moors. The narrow streets of the Old Town, especially Carrer d'en Serra are resonant of its Arab past. The walls you see today were added in the early 14th century under the rule of King Jaume II. You shouldn't miss the fabulous Neo-Gothic Sant Jaume Church and the fantastic Sa Bassa Blanca Museum which is home to amazing contemporary art and stunning gardens.

Pollensa and Puerta Pollensa are a short drive away. Pollensa is an ancient, charming, attractive, walled town with stunning architecture, modern art galleries, fabulous boutiques, chic, gastronomic restaurants and a lively market. Puerto Pollensa is wonderful with its dazzling white sand and shallow, warm water. A little further on, Formentor is absolutely spectacular and worth the bumpy drive to get there.

There are a number of vineyards nearby where you can taste some delicious wines. Bodegas Can Vidalet at Pollensa and Bodega Butxet are excellent. The Mortix winery, hidden off a winding road between Pollensa and Lluc, is a young and up-and-coming contender in the Balearic wine market. It is worth the navigating the hairpin bends of the Tramuntana mountain range to find it.
