

Maison Musier

Region: Provence-Alpes Sleeps: 8

Overview

Maison Musier sits in a residential neighbourhood near the pretty village of Gordes within the glorious Luberon region of Provence.

With its terracotta tiled roof, French shutters, stone façade and beautiful garden filled with flowers and cypress trees, this is a quintessential Provençal house. Spend long summer days basking in the sunshine or moving between shaded spots. There are covered dining and seating areas, as well as a jacuzzi and a pool for taking refreshing dips throughout the day.

Inside is just as charming, with traditional wooden beams and a large stone fireplace in the living/dining room. Two lovely bedrooms with double beds can also be found on the ground floor, while upstairs is a further double plus a room containing a bunk bed and a sofa bed, which is ideal for children.

Gordes, which is officially one of the Most Beautiful Villages in France, is close by and boasts a handful of restaurants plus a café, bakery, grocery store and a crafts fair which usually takes place on Tuesday mornings. It's a scenic place to wander around, with little alleyways opening out to spectacular viewpoints.

Other enchanting villages close by include Bonnieux, Murs, Roussillon and L'Isle-sur-la-Sorgue. Another fantastic place to visit is the city of Avignon, which is full of fascinating historic sites, galleries and museums. You can also explore the surrounding area on foot or by bike, with many trails and paths leading through the vineyards, olive groves and valleys this region is so well-known for.
