

The Meadows Estate

Region: Norfolk Sleeps: 19

Overview

A wonderfully charming Norfolk Manor Farmhouse set centrally within 40 acres of beautiful, secluded grounds in the unspoilt Norfolk countryside. Arriving up the long driveway, the peace and privacy of Manor House is immediately striking, offering a relaxed atmosphere with an abundance of space for a large family getaway. With a heated indoor pool, a gym and a games room on site, Manor House has it all!

The traditional house offers a comfortable and cosy interior, with touches of African artwork and furnishings that nod to the owners' heritage. On the ground floor you'll be absolutely spoilt for choice of rooms to relax into, but the star of the show has to be the stunning, south-facing conservatory. With panoramic views of the exquisite grounds, you'll no doubt want to spend all your time here, sinking into the large comfy sofas while watching the thriving local wildlife just outside.

The homey Norfolk Manor kitchen boasts an AGA as well as electric oven, making it perfect for cooking up a feast. The adjoining breakfast room has views over the manicured gardens, and French patio doors open onto an al fresco dining area for use in warmer months. The separate dining room is perfect for evening entertaining, with a grand marble fireplace, rustic wooden floors and large wooden table providing comfortable dining for twelve.

Up to the first floor and you will find a total of seven bedrooms that can accommodate up to fifteen guests. The master bedroom has a super king-size bed with private ensuite shower room. Four further spacious bedrooms - three super king and one king - are available. The fourth room is a large twin, with two single beds, and the final room is perfect for children, with bunk beds and a single, as well as a selection of books and toys. Alongside the bedrooms there's a characterful family bathroom with traditional roll-top bathtub, and an additional upstairs shower room in contemporary decor.

The heated indoor pool is a real treat, not to mention the steam room to relax into once you've done your morning laps! In the external barns you will find the well-equipped gym, so you'll have no excuse not to keep up your fitness routine while on holiday! Alongside this there's the games room, with plenty to keep the kids entertained.

Within the grounds you'll also find an additional cosy cottage set away from the main house. Sleeping up to four guests, with its own fully equipped kitchen and bathroom, this can be rented for an additional supplement - perfect for family or friends who want to join your getaway!

Offering absolute peace and tranquility, the grounds of Manor House are made up of formal gardens, pasture, and woodlands, surrounded by 800 acres of picturesque farmland. With a wildflower meadow located to the South of the grounds, woodland along the West, you'll be completely immersed in the idyllic Norfolk countryside.

Outside Grounds

Set in 40 acres of land, the grounds are made up of a mixture of formal gardens, pasture and woodland. The formal gardens are arranged as follows: immediately to the South of the house there is an area of walled garden laid to lawn with gravelled paths bordered by clipped box hedging. The main garden is situated to the East of the house and has large areas laid to lawn with mixed shrub and herbaceous beds and a variety of ornamental shrubs and trees.

On this terrace there is a BBQ and a large table and chairs providing al fresco dining on warm summer days.

Situated to the North there is an area of orchard and flowering cherries with a willow arch leading to the hard tennis court and pavilion. To the North West of the house there is an orchard with a great variety of productive fruit trees under planted with spring bulbs and box hedging. The gardens contain some magnificent mature trees including beech, lime and oak.

To the West of the main formal gardens there is a further area of woodland garden with a pond and a variety of ornamental trees including a good selection of Japanese maples. This area is under planted with spring bulbs with a central wrought iron domed pergola trained with climbing roses. This area has an abundance of wildlife with resident nesting ducks so please keep any dogs out of this area and keep the gates shut at all times.

In the external restored barns, you will find both the gym and "Club Fitch". The gym is very well-equipped for the fitness fanatics! Location & Local Information

The Meadows is situated in an unspoilt rural position surrounded by farmland. The picturesque village of Litcham is roughly one mile away, where you can find a friendly local pub and a village store for necessities. For further amenities, the property is centrally located between three market towns - Swaffham, Dereham and Fakenham, each around 9 miles away. Swaffham holds a buzzing outdoor market every Saturday, offering an extensive selection of stalls showcasing a wide range of goods. It's not to miss!

Just twenty minutes away is Houghton Hall & Gardens, a stunning historical stately home. With an impressive collection of contemporary sculpture and a beautiful walled garden, it makes a wonderful family day out.

For some sea air, the stunning North Norfolk coast is just twenty miles north of the house. You'll find endless stretches of quiet sandy beaches at Wells-next-the-sea, Holkham beach and Brancaster Estate. Further West along the coast you can find the National Trust's Blakeney Nature Reserve, which offers beautiful coastal views, spectacular wildlife, and is home to the largest grey seal colony in England. Book yourself onto one of the many seal watching boat tours for an adventurous day by the sea!

If you're after a change of pace from the countryside, then Norfolk's famous cathedral city, Norwich, is forty-five minutes away. Here you can wander the historical cobbled lanes of England's largest medieval city. You'll find a charming mix of independent shops, cafes and galleries, nestled amongst cosy inviting pubs and medieval stone churches.
