

Villa Loris

Region: Dubrovnik Riviera Sleeps: 6

Overview

Located in the beautiful fishing village of Brescine and just a short distance from Sjekirica Beach, Villa Loris is a stunning three-bedroom property that dates back to the 18th century. This authentic stone villa is a real sight to behold, accommodating up to 6 guests and refurbished, reconstructed and modernised throughout. Set over two storeys, Villa Loris features a stylish living area with plush sofas and classic white furniture and a traditional style kitchen and dining area, equipped with all the amenities you would expect, including an oven and hob refrigerator, kettle, toaster and coffee maker. A second kitchen can be found in a small stone house connected to the main house, leading to a pretty courtyard complete with an outdoor dining area and bbq - the ideal spot to enjoy relaxing evening meals and drinks as the sunsets.

The villa features two double bedrooms and one twin room, which are light, spacious and airy, with clean, white decor, modern furniture, exposed beams and spectacular sea views. Villa Loris also has two bathrooms - extra handy if you are travelling with older kids or teens - both featuring modern, white suites, glass shower cubicles, and plenty of space for your towels and toiletries.

On the south side of the villa, you'll find a large terrace adjacent to your private pool, perfect for sunbathing and relaxing, as well as wooden sun loungers and parasols. Here you'll be able to while away the hours sunning yourself as the kids splash about in the pool, all while taking in the breathtaking views across the dazzling blue of the Adriatic to the islands of Lopud and Sipan.

Location & Local Information

Villa Loris is ideally located near to the popular tourist spot of Dubrovnik, a city known for its Old Town, encircled by 16th century stone walls, and its well-preserved architecture - including the baroque St Blaise Church, Renaissance Sponza Palace, and the Gothic Rector's Palace, which is now a history museum. The city's coastal location, fabulous restaurants, bars and shops, make Dubrovnik a must-see destination. Still, for Game Of Thrones fans, the city is arguably more popular because of its connection to King's Landing, the capital of Westeros, and the fact that it is the backdrop to some of the well-known show's most pivotal scenes. Fans can also see St Dominika Street, where Cersei made her walk of shame, and visit Pile Bay, which they'll recognise from the show as Blackwater Bay. You'll also be able to see the House of the Undying or the Minceta Tower - where Daenerys recovered her stolen dragons.

If you want to learn more about the real-life historical sights of the city, why not combine that with the chance to sample some fresh, local cuisine and book a Sights & Bites tour. Visit Dubrovnik's top cultural sites while making regular stops to sample the city's culinary delights, such as cheese, olive oil, seafood, fruit brandy, wine and more! An experienced local guide will lead you from Ploce gate through the walled city to the old port and through the main street of Stradun. During your trip, you can expect to sample baked black olives, capers, pickled shallots, sun-dried tomatoes and fresh, homemade bread as you enjoy four restaurant stops and partake in a cold starter, main dish, dessert, and to finish off, a local speciality - all washed down with plenty of good local wine and craft beers.

If you fancy a break from city life, one of the most popular excursions to take while visiting Dubrovnik is the short ferry ride to Lokrum Island. Here you'll be able to wander through the gardens where peacocks and large rabbits roam free or spend the day at the beach. For Game Of Thrones fans, here is your chance to sit on the Iron Throne and visit another filming site at the Benedictine Monastery on the island.

What we love

- Villa Loris dates back to the 18th century but has been completely modernised and refurbished throughout
- The villa features a separate, second kitchen in a small stone house next to the main house and an outdoor dining table - handy for prepping food for the bbq area.
- There are panoramic sea views from the terrace and pool area.

What you should know...

- The private pool doesn't have a barrier or fence, so parents will need to be vigilant when children are in the pool area
- Villa Loris is located in a quiet fishing village of Brescine, but the more popular tourist spot of Dubrovnik Old Town is nearby, and here you'll find plenty of historical sites, attractions, bars and restaurants
- There is a cot available at the villa in addition to double and twin beds, ideal for those travelling with an infant
