Location & Local Information

Villa Valorosa is situated in the beautiful village of Rogoznica, a popular tourist destination that lies in the southernmost part of Sibenik-Knin County. Set within a cove and sheltered from the strong winds, here you'll find plenty of bars, restaurants and shops to enjoy as well as cafes, a sports centre, swimming pools and a nightclub. The beaches in the area are a mixture of sandy and rocky and don't get too crowded, so you should have no problem finding a quiet spot to relax and unwind.

Nearby is the famous Frapa Marina, one of the most beautiful Adriatic. Here you'll discover a plethora of places to eat, drink and relax, as well as a number of both indoor and outdoor sporting activities - so you'll always find plenty to do here. Rogoznica has a long coastline with a number of rocky and sandy beaches, including the popular Sepurina beach, a pebble beach with a Blue Flag award for cleanliness and quality of service. The beach is ideal for families with small children thanks to the ease of access and available facilities that include showers, toilets and changing rooms, umbrellas and sun loungers. There's no shortage of taverns and restaurants in the area, all offering a variety of locally-sourced fish and meat dishes, so be sure to sample plenty of Dalmatian cuisine and perhaps a glass or two of the local wine!

If you're self-catering during your stay, everything you need is available in Rogoznica. There are several good-sized supermarkets in the area and a pharmacy, market, post office, souvenir shops, and fish market. While you're here, it's well worth hiring a small boat to explore the beautiful coastline, where you'll find plenty of secluded bays and small islands. If you'd rather stay inland, you'll find the Church of the Assumption in the town centre, a marvellous piece of architecture harking back to 1746, as well as the Church of St Nicholas, which was built in the middle ages.
