Glyfada Beach
Surrounded by tree-covered cliffs and towering rocky formations, Glyfada beach offers soft sand and crystal clear Blue Flag waters. Popular with young crowds and lined with shops and tavernas, this is a lively beach where you can rent a lounge and sunshade or try your hand at some of the watersports on offer.

Kontogialos Beach
Next to Glyfada is Kontogialos Beach, located down the hill from its nearest village Pelekas. The wide sandy beach offers sunbeds and umbrellas, volleyball nets, showers and various boats to rent. A great place for children, the sea is very shallow close to the shore and perfect for paddling.

Agios Gordios Beach
Around 1.5km long, Agios Gordios Beach offers boats, canoes and pedalos for hire, as well as loungers and sunshades for those who are looking for a more relaxing beach day. There's also a diving and watersports centre if you're feeling extra active! The small village of Agios Gordios has a variety of restaurants, shops and bars so you can easily stay here from noon till night and want for nothing.

Also only 15km away from the villa is Corfu's capital, Corfu town, which offers plenty of opportunities to explore the history and culture of the island.
