Location & Local Information

Kefalonia is the largest of the islands in the Ionian sea and is famous for its exotic beaches such as Myrtos, Antisamos, Lourdas and Skala, as well as being the filming location for the movie Captain Corelli's Mandolin. Besides its beautiful coastline, Kefalonia also has lots of sightseeing opportunities with fantastic monasteries, impressive medieval castles and picturesque villages.

Xi Beach

One of the most popular beaches in the Paliki region, Xi beach is famed for its gorgeous copper-toned sand, crystal clear shallow waters and beautiful sunsets.

Petani

Not for those afraid of heights, Petani beach is reached via a winding stairway down a steep cliff. But the effort is truly worth it to see one of Kefalonia's true hidden gems. With white shingle sand and dark blue waters the beach is Blue Flag certified. Above the beach on the cliff you'll also find a variety of tavernas with amazing views out to sea.

Lixouri

The second largest town in Kefalonia after its capital Argostoli, Lixouri is a charming place with plenty to offer visitors. You can take a day trip to browse the local boutiques, shop for souvenirs, try some local cuisine and wine at the tavernas and restaurants and soak up the traditional Greek atmosphere. You can also hire private boats and yachts to explore the Kefalonian coastline by sea, or take a ferry to Argostoli and discover Kefalonia's capital.

Fiscardo

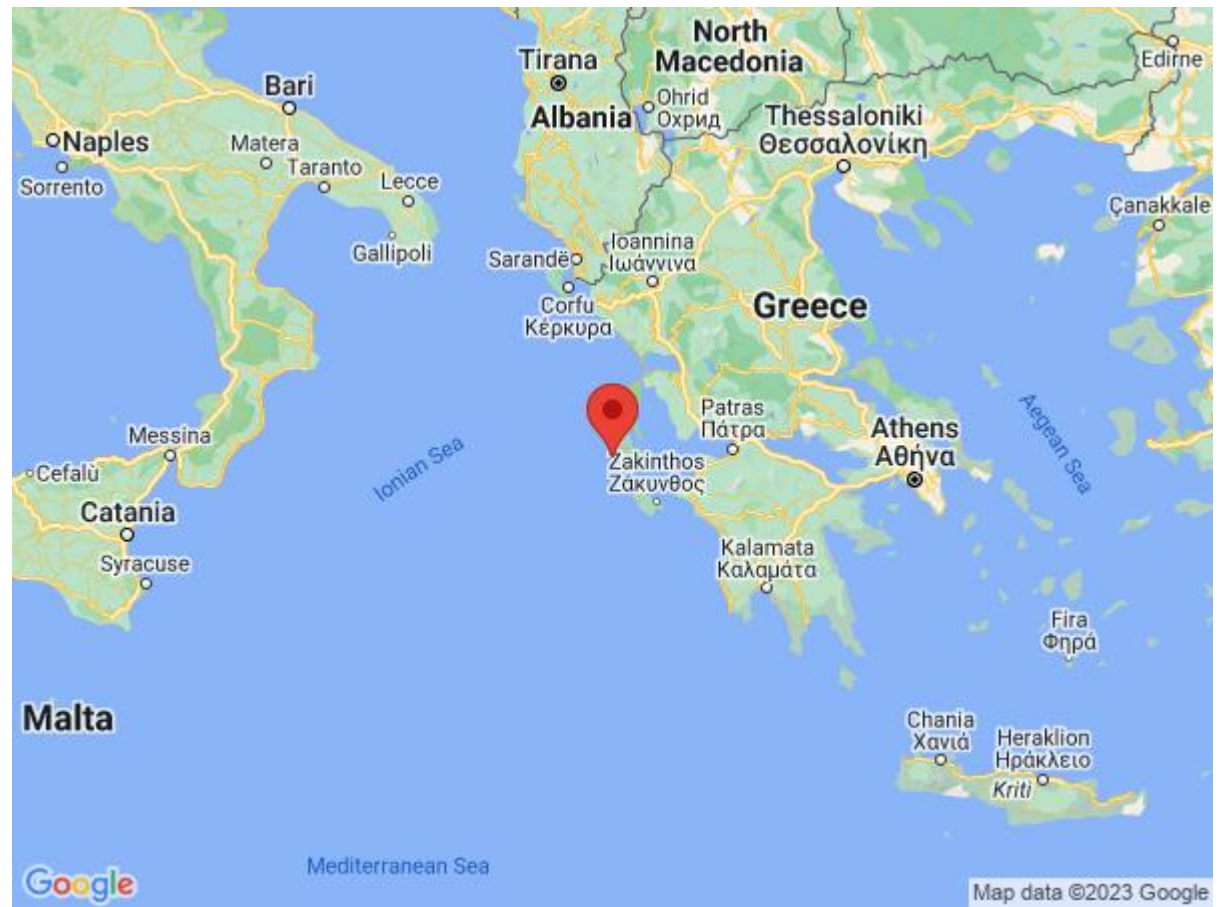

A colourful traditional fishing village in the northernmost point of Kefalonia, Fiscardo is well worth a visit. Feel like you're travelling back in time as you stroll down the narrow streets that still feature the pre-earthquake Venetian style architecture.

Drogarati Cave

With its ancient stalactites and stalagmites, Drogarati Cave is one of the most impressive on the island. First opened in the 1960s, the 150million year-old cave has even been home to various concerts thanks to its amazing acoustics.
