

Casa Cambados Pueblo

Region: Galicia Sleeps: 6

Overview

Chic, sophisticated and elegant, Casa Cambados Pueblo offers the perfect holiday retreat, located metres from the beach in the beautiful town of Cambados. This is one of our favourite spots in Galicia, with the lively bars and restaurants of Cambados a short walk away, complemented by the Salnés vineyard landscapes surrounding the town.

This charming villa has been completely restored, now equipped with a luxury of details that make each space feel as special as the next. The main living space is open plan, yet each part of the room is separated clearly into its own zone, with a sophisticated lounge, social dining area and brilliant kitchen. The space has a grown-up feel, with a calm and collected ambience, setting the scene for tranquil nights and candlelit dinners. Every room is bright air airy, with large windows and sliding doors.

Throughout the villa, there are three cosy double bedrooms, all of which have balconies overlooking the intimate garden. There is an elegant bathroom with a huge hydro-massage bathtub from which you can gaze out over the garden, feeling any lasting worries melt away!

The sequence of outdoor spaces extends the living areas into the open air. There is a chill-out rooftop terrace with sun loungers and garden views, perfect for a morning coffee or evening aperitif! Downstairs, the beautiful garden has a familiar feel, with different corners to relax in, whether reading a book, barbecuing, or sharing a bottle of local wine long into the evening.

Whether you choose to spend your time in the garden at Casa Cambados Pueblo, sunbathing on the beaches or heading around the local area to explore, there is something for everyone in this vibrant region of Spain. Famed for its vineyards, white sandy beaches and the UNESCO world heritage city of Santiago, there are endless sites to see and landscapes to explore, an idyllic holiday retreat.

Location & Local Information

Located in Galicia, which remains mostly off the typical tourist trails of Spain, Casa Cambados Pueblo is the perfect destination for those looking for an authentic Spanish retreat. Situated in the beautiful town of Cambados, mere metres from the white sandy shores of the beach, this sophisticated villa is the perfect escape from the hustle and bustle of day-to-day life. Guests can walk to the local shops, restaurants and supermarkets or venture further out of town to the vineyards and historic sites. Santiago de Compostela is a forty-five-minute drive away, offering a fantastic array of things to see and do.

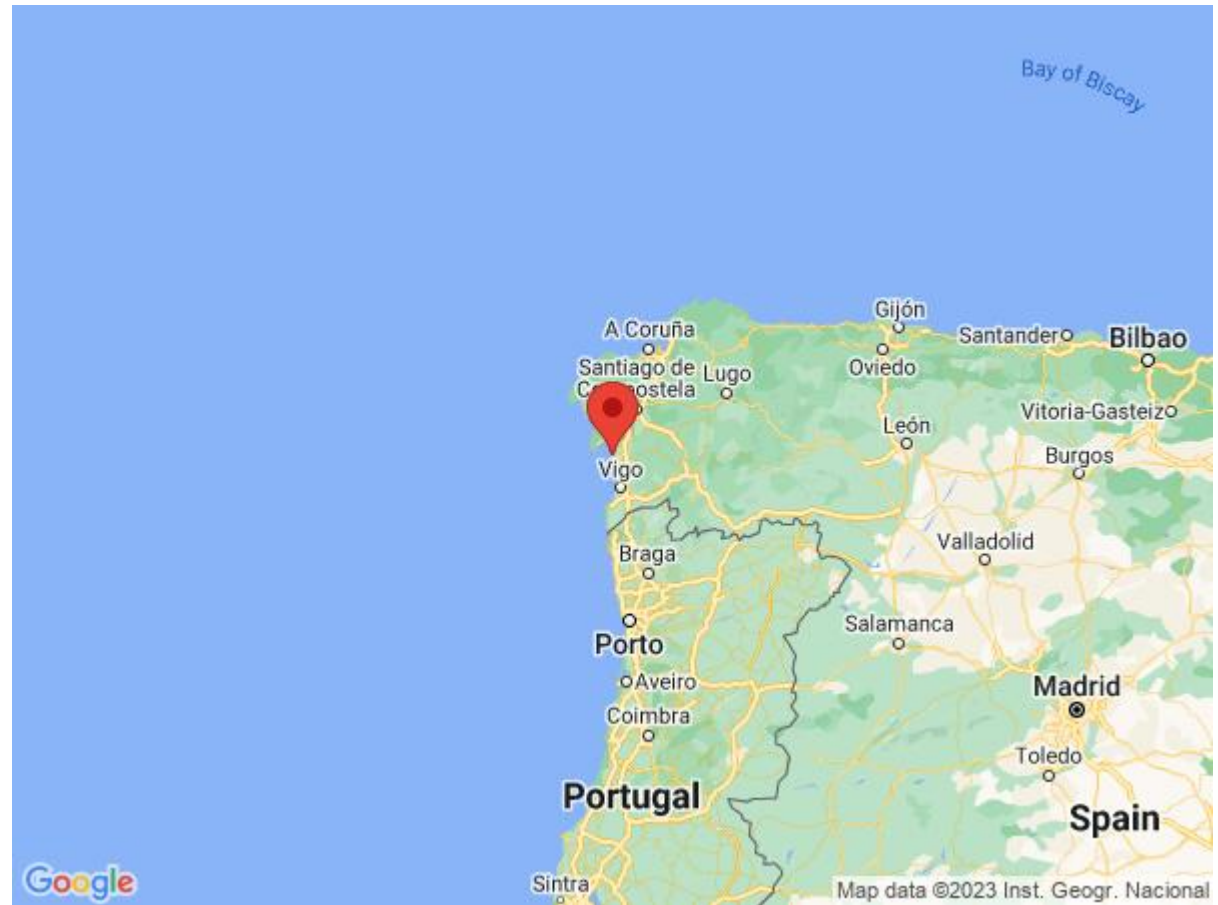

Cambados itself is located in the 'Ría de Arousa' with cobbled streets winding their way around this seafaring town. With rich architectural wealth as the 'Plaza de Fefiñáns', ruins of Santa Mariña Dozo, San Sadurni's tower, A Pastora's viewpoint are all worth a visit. In the town, there is a covered market and two weekly markets which should provide all the products you could need in the way of shopping, choosing fresh, local ingredients to enhance your home cooking.

Santiago de Compostela has been declared a World Heritage Site by UNESCO and is considered as one of the most beautiful urban areas in the world! We often recommend dedicating a whole day or two to exploring this fascinating city. Whether you are drawn in by history, nature, leisure or gastronomy, there are endless things for visitors to enjoy. The famous cathedral, Saint Sign of Santiago, must be visited, and afternoons are best for getting lost in the narrow streets and squares that make up its historic quarter with centuries of history and majestic buildings, many of them from medieval times.

The food market in Santiago is always a vibrant, lively scene, which masses of fresh produce from both the sea and the land beautifully displayed at the 300-odd stalls. Local favourites such as Tetilla cheese, cured meats, sausage, fruit and empanadas will line the stalls, perfect for picking up a picnic lunch or some ingredients for cooking back at the villa. Our favourite part of the afternoons has to be choosing an intimate wine bar and tasting the best the region has to offer!
