

Casa Ames

Region: Galicia Sleeps: 22 - 27

Overview

Casa Ames offers a wonderful country style home accommodating up to twenty-seven guests across its eleven spacious bedrooms. The villa is located in a quiet village just 7 km from Santiago, with views stretching out across the beautiful Galician countryside and vineyards. With its own private pool and beautiful interiors, this impressive rural house is an incredible place to spend your holidays whilst in Spain.

When you arrive, there is an air of calm and tranquillity, with a series of living spaces that vary between intimate and open. Carefully restored, the décor combines tradition and vanguard with antique-style furniture that adds charm and character to every room. There is a professional style kitchen perfect for cooking for large groups and parties, or you could hire a chef into the villa to prepare delicious dishes for you to all enjoy together. The lounge boasts a large chesterfield sofa and armchairs, positioned intimately around the fireplace, perfect for evening conversations curled up and talking through the highlights of the day. For a more formal dinner, there is also a separate dining room which is more traditional and sophisticated in its décor, with a rich wooden table— perfect for a celebration! On sunny afternoons, there is a relaxed conservatory that offers a great retreat from the more formal space in the rest of the house.

With eleven cosy bedrooms, all the guests can find their own space, enjoying private moments alone or as couples. Imagine swinging open the shutter on your bedroom windows in the mornings, feeling the warmth of the morning sun across your skin and flooding the room with natural light, bringing energy to the day.

Outside you can meander between the picturesque garden, private swimming pool, barbecue area and porch. Sun worshippers can make themselves at home on one of the poolside sun loungers, soaking in the relaxing atmosphere and hopping in and out of the water to cool off.

With the rich history and architecture of Santiago de Compostela, just 7km away, Casa Ames offers the perfect base from which to explore all the delights of this charming region.

Location & Local Information

Casa Ames sits on the outskirts of Santiago de Compostela, just 7km from the historic centre of this breathtaking city. Although Galicia remains largely off the typical tourist trail of Spain, the many sights and wonders the area has to offer are truly awe-inspiring.

Awarded World Heritage Status by UNESCO, Santiago is considered one of the most beautiful urban areas in the world. From its historic centre to the architect-designed playgrounds and epic Cathedral, there is so much to see and do. History, nature, leisure, and gastronomy all work in unison to create the vibrant atmosphere Santiago is renowned for. Several of the majestic buildings date back to medieval times, with markets and world revered restaurants hidden among the narrow winding streets and squares.

The famous Cathedral, Saint Sign of Santiago, should be right at the top of your list, with a viewpoint at the top from which you can enjoy a panorama across the city rooftops. The Cathedral Museum stretches over four floors, incorporating the Cathedral's large 16th-century Gothic-Plateresque cloister. You can enjoy the large section of Maestro Mateo's original carved-stone choir (destroyed in 1604 but pieced back together in 1999), an impressive collection of religious art (including the Botafumeiros in the second-floor library), the lavishly decorated 18th-century sala capitular, a room of tapestries woven from designs by Goya, and, the Panteón de Reyes, with tombs of kings of medieval León.

Gastronomy must be one of our favourite aspects of any holiday, and Santiago's food market does not disappoint! With around 300-odd stalls displaying masses of fresh produce, you can pick up all your favourite ingredients and some snacks to keep you going through the day! Tetilla cheese, cured meats, sausage, fruit, and empanadas, are all classic local delicacies, so make sure they are on your lists. Tucked away around the market, you will also spot some intimate wine bars serving up wines from the region, perfect for tasting some local grapes and picking a bottle or two to take back to the villa to pair with your homecooked dinner.

A few more stops for your travel list, Fervenza do Toxa, one of the highest waterfalls in Spain, is a must-visit. We also highly recommend a trip to El Pazo de Oca, one of the most beautiful gardens in the world!
