Overview

A modern beachfront villa with 4 double bedrooms and a seasonal outdoor swimming pool.

Villa Lumbarda is a modern-style property with beautiful views out to sea and across the mountains. The property is split into two apartments, each with almost identical facilities – perfect for two families holidaying together who sometimes might want a bit of privacy. The facilities include a seasonal outdoor swimming pool, barbecue, garden, lounge area, fitness centre, free private parking and WiFi.

In each apartment, you'll find two double bedrooms decorated in a smart, minimalist style with touches of colour to match the theme of the rest of the property. The bathrooms are fitted with a large shower and are completed with a modern tiled finish.

The open-plan kitchen areas come fully equipped, with a stovetop, oven, fridge, kettle, microwave and dishwasher. You can cook to your heart's content – whether you're rustling up a quick lunch or sitting down to a three-course dinner in the spacious dining area. Adjoining the kitchen is a comfortable living space with a large corner sofa and satellite-flat screen TV – perfect for watching the morning news or settling in for a movie night.

In the outdoor area of the villa is a large swimming pool, big enough for all guests to enjoy a nice cool swim together under the hot Croatian sun. Or why not catch some rays on the sun loungers on the poolside patio? With plenty of space outside, this is also a great villa for our four-legged friends – pets are allowed on request at no extra charge during your stay!

Ideally situated in the verdant countryside, Villa Lumbarda is only 1.7km from Bilin Zal Beach, where you'll find gorgeous views of the Peljesac peninsula and the Korcula archipelago. At the beach, you'll also find a great taverna, as well as a food and drink outlet and a place where you can rent sun loungers and umbrellas.

Location & Local Information

Villa Lumbarda is located in the countryside surrounding the village of Lumbarda, which lies on the most eastern point of the Croatian island of Korcula.

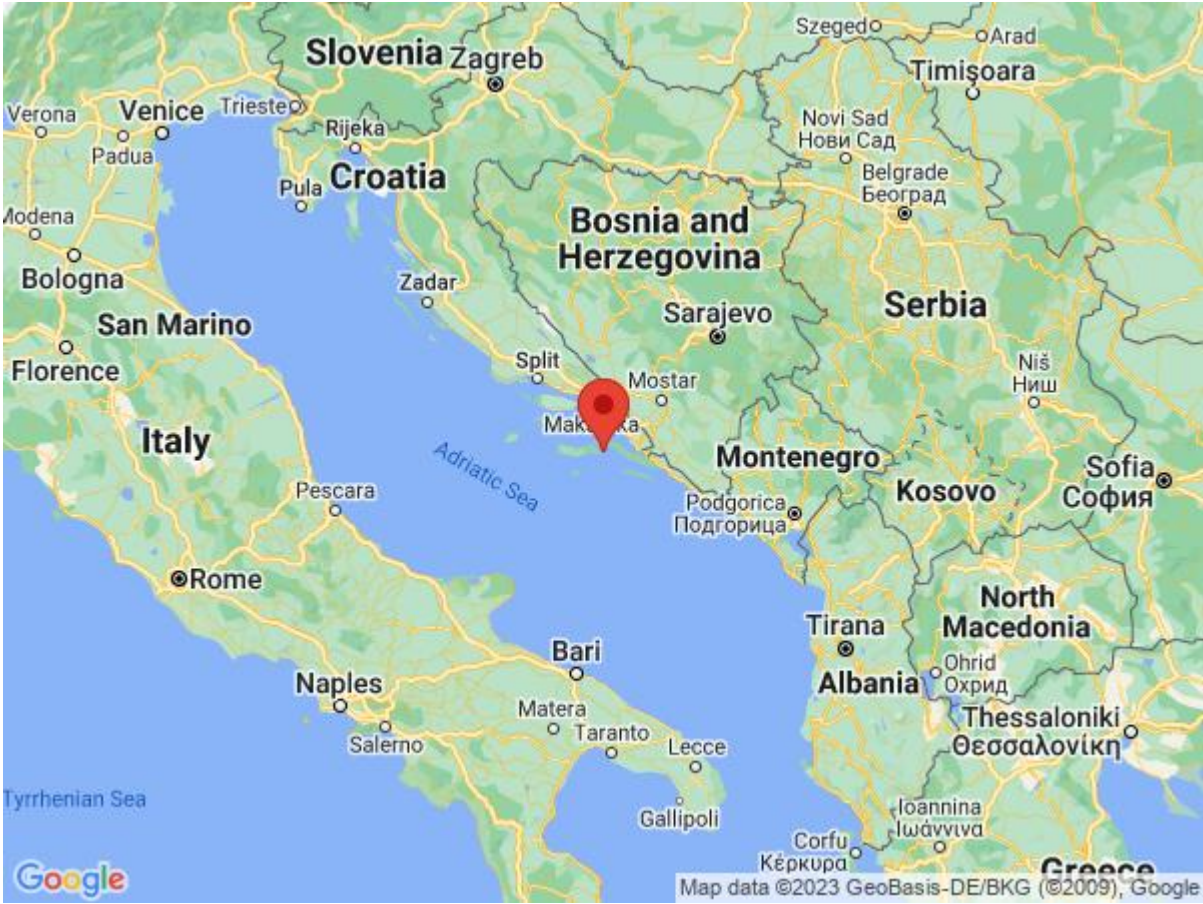

Surrounded by sandy vineyards which produce the famous Grk white wine, Lumbarda is a small fishing village with about 1200 inhabitants. The locals are primarily wine-makers and fishermen, but there's also a strong tourist tradition with excursions to nearby islands, such as Lastovo and Mljet.

As well as excursions around the Korcula archipelago, there are various activities you can participate in. Whether you're a watersports junkie who loves to paddleboard, windsurf, sea kayak or sail, or a fan of nature and hiking, you're sure to find something to suit. Located right on the tip of the island, Lumbarda offers some beautiful coastal walks that aren't too hilly, so perfect for a leisurely stroll – especially lovely at sunrise or sunset. And if you're feeling a bit more adventurous, you can hire bikes for the whole family and cycle to Raznjic, Glogova or Lumbvarajsko Racisce.

When trying out the plentiful restaurants, beach bars and cafes along the seafront in Lumbarda, be sure to try some of the delicious local wines. And if you're a real wine buff, you can pre-book a wine tasting session at one of the nearby vineyards – the reception at Villa Lumbarda will be happy to help you make any reservations.

7km away via a pretty road through olive groves and pine tree woods lies Korcula's main town: Korcula. It's well worth a drive down to visit the old walled city, with its herringbone streets and historic sites. With a strong Catholic tradition, you'll find the Cathedral of St. Mark and Franciscan Monastery, as well as Venetian palaces and the city's fortifications.

The closest Croatian airport to Villa Lumbarda is Split, which is 200km away. However, you can also fly into Mostar International Airport in Bosnia and Herzegovina, which is slightly closer and about 100km away. Whichever airport you fly into, bear in mind that you'll have to take a ferry over to Korcula island.
