

Clock Coach House

Region: Shropshire Sleeps: 10

Overview

The characterful Clock Coach House holds a wonderful countryside position within the beautiful county of Shropshire. While guests will enjoy a tranquil escape, the home is just fifteen minutes from the ancient market town of Bridgnorth where a wide variety of excellent amenities, including shops and restaurants, can be found.

Built in the early 19th Century, the Grade II listed Georgian home has been lovingly modernised while still retaining all of its original charm and character features, including arched display recesses, sash windows and of course, the period clock tower. Clock Coach House can comfortably accommodate up to ten guests across its five well-appointed bedrooms. On the ground floor is the impressive living accommodation which offers plenty of room for socialising and comprises of a spacious drawing room and bright conservatory with garden views. The contemporary kitchen comes fully-equipped with all the tools you could possibly need to create delicious meals while the dining room comfortably seats all ten guests. Four of the beautifully-appointed bedrooms can be found on the ground floor, the first, a super-king master which boasts its own dressing area and en-suite bathroom. Two king-size rooms and a twin room, share the use of a fantastic family bathroom with Jacuzzi bathtub. Upstairs on the first floor is the second king-size master bedroom which boasts its own en-suite bathroom with luxurious Jacuzzi bath and dressing area.

Guests are bound to enjoy the stunning far reaching views over the surrounding countryside. After action-packed summer days spent exploring wonderful Shropshire, the whole group will enjoy yummy barbecues al fresco on the terrace. The large lawns offer plenty of space for the whole family to enjoy games while enjoying the peaceful setting.
