Location & Local Information

Although Finca Lledons is found in a quiet area within Santanyi, it is only 30-minutes away from the bustling region of Cala d'Or. Here, you will find a wealth of exciting things to do, helping you remain engaged and well during your stay. The wine industry is extremely prevalent in Cala d'Or and across the whole of Mallorca. Son Alegre is located just 6-minutes away from the town centre of Cala d'Or and offers a glimpse into the fascinating world of winemaking. This winery was first founded in 2004 and used a diverse collection of solar-powered initiatives to fuel its operations. Therefore, Son Alegre is able to create a more sustainable wine industry overall. Guests are encouraged to take a guided tour of their wine cellar and surrounding grounds to see how this intuitive business produces a selection of incredible wines. Tours cost just €25 per person and include a tasting platter of multiple wines and oils.

Cala d'Or is also well-renowned for its pristine golf courses, particularly the Vall d'Or Golf Club. This establishment was first set up in 1986 and has since become one of the most popular courses in Mallorca. Furthermore, this particular golf course is appropriate for both novices and beginners as it is both raised and flat in multiple areas. Vall d'Or Golf Club is also constantly expanding its ingenious buggy network, helping guests to travel around the course with ease. Vall d'Or Golf Club is less than 10-minutes away from the centre of Cala d'Or and costs just €112 to play on an 18 hole course.

If you are looking to explore the wide variety of historical landmarks within Cala d'Or, Es Forti is an ideal place to visit. This archaic military base was first constructed in 1730 and was completely destroyed by a terrifying tsunami in 1755. However, the base was completely restored in 1793 and has attracted curious visitors ever since. Plus, the building was declared a Site of Cultural Interest in 1949. Es Forti is just 8-minutes away from Cala d'Or and can be entered free of charge. Not to mention, in the summer months, this site hosts a collection of inviting festivals and events.
