The Eagles Villas Resort boasts an impressive range of amenities and activities. Together with luxurious rooms, exclusivity and privacy, guests leave Villa Hirokova with the most amazing holiday memories. Ouranoupolis is located in a totally unspoiled area with endless fine sandy beaches and crystal clear emerald water. Halkidiki sits next to the ancient city of Thessaloniki and is famous for its three fingers stretching into the sparkling Aegean. It is a wondrous paradise of dramatic landscapes featuring rare natural beauty, secluded coves and majestic mountains, rich heritage and picturesque seaside villages. Ouranoupolis Beach enjoys breathtaking sunset and mountain views plus there are idyllic islands close by with Robinson Crusoe vibes.

The Eagles Villas Resort boasts a captivating sandy beach, a wonderful array of watersports, a fabulous spa offering luxurious well-being personalised therapies, pools, six excellent restaurants, a fitness area, tennis, equipment hire and a long list of unique experiences and excursions. The whole family are welcome and children enjoy a special club with lots of fun activities. Mouth-watering cuisine is available at the resort's six restaurants. These include Lofos Restaurant with its international fusion buffets, live cooking section and wine tasting table in the main resort building, the Italian Eleonas by Fuga with its sensational sunset views over the bay of Mouth Athos, Kamares by Spondi, the adults only sunset balcony restaurant with menus designed by two-star Michelin chef Arnaud Bignon and views of Ammouliani Island, Armyra Restaurant on the beach offering delicious Greek cuisine and seafood by candlelight in the evenings, Vinum Grill with its prime cuts and fabulous Jospier grill and Washi with its live Asian cooking overlooking the pool. The resort also boasts four bars to choose from.

The award winning Eagles Spa has been designed to enhance the serenity of its gorgeous surroundings offering amazing Elemis based therapies, massages and holistic treatments to rejuvenate the mind, body and soul. The resort's Eagles Drenia Island complex is a cluster of stunningly beautiful uninhabited islands which guests enjoy exclusively after hopping on one of the resort's private motorboats. You can discover Halkidiki's special gems using the resort's brand new, state-of-the-art Axopar 28 T-top motorboat, the ultimate leisure boat. With a capacity of seven adults and a wet bar that will keep you refreshed with ice-cold drinks all day, it is just fabulous. Floating dreams can be enjoyed using luxury yacht rental while you explore beautiful islands, sun-kissed beaches and breathtaking scenery. Eagles offers an endless package of watersports at their watersports centre including water skiing, wakeboarding, ringo rides, couch inflatables, stand up paddleboards including mega SUPs for up to six people, pedalos and kayaks. Sailing lessons are available as well as sea kayaking trips where you will hopefully see some dolphins and scuba diving. On top of all this, there are fitness studios with cardio fitness equipment, a steam room and sauna, swimming pools and tennis courts. Eagles is an outstanding wedding venue. There are half-board packages available so please talk to our Concierge Team if you are interested.

Villa Hirokova is a wonderful, idyllic sanctuary that delights with its luxurious treats. Its cool, mellow tones and contemporary furnishings bring smiles to faces and offers wonderful comfort. This one bedroom ocean pool villa is super cool, the perfect pad for a holiday with friends or family or for an indulgent, romantic getaway. A lavish kingsize bed awaits in the master bedroom suite, beautifully adorned with crisp cottons. Your holiday wardrobe can be put away in your walk-in closet. Fluffy dressing gowns and slippers complete the luxury, contemporary bathrooms. The second room with two walls of glass can be used as a delightful living space with garden, pool and sea views and a mini kitchen space which is home to your espresso coffee maker, wine cooler and mini bar. Alternatively it can be made up as a room for children. A sofa in your bedroom can also be used as a bed for a child. You can listen to your favourite soundtracks on the music system or watch television if you are not drawn to the magical scenes outside on the deck. Luxury loungers await on the deck, the perfect spot for some holiday reading while enjoying your favourite tippie from the mini bar. Guests can enjoy alfresco dining on the terrace or leave Villa Hirokova for your choice of resort restaurant. One thing is for sure, you will forever remember your time here.

Location & Local Information

Villa Hirokova is located on the idyllic Eagles Villas Resort in Ouranoupolis on the third peninsula of Halkidiki. The resort has a wealth of facilities, and guests can upgrade to an all-inclusive board. The resort has a lovely restaurant and bar area. To relax there is a spa, gym, indoor and outdoor pools plus two tennis courts and a paddle tennis court. There is a complimentary club buggy to take you to the beach, parking area and sister hotel. The resorts beach has watersports, Scuba diving and boat trips (extra cost) The resort is enveloped by dreamy seascapes, dramatic mountains, and brilliant blue sky. Guests staying at the resort are offered an impressive range of excursions to explore Halkidiki's fabulous landscapes, seascapes and the mystery of Mouth Athos. The quaint village of Ouranoupolis boasts a small, picturesque fishing harbour and charming narrow roads brimming with gorgeous buildings. The Byzantine Tower of Ouranoupolis, the ruins of the ancient monastery Zigou Abbey, and the canal of Xerxes are all waiting to be discovered, as well as the most sublime sandy beaches. Guests can visit the dreamy neighbouring islands of Drenia and Ammouliani, both famous for their shimmering emerald water and idyllic beaches. The islands are only five minutes from the resort onboard the resort's Axopar motorboat. The boat will circle the islands passing the Eagles Island Club on Tigani Island. Guests can dive into the crystal clear waters and will be served delicious Greek mezes during the trip.

Vourvourou on the Sithonia peninsula is another hidden gem worth visiting. A cruise will take you around Diaporos Island, stopping at Kryfto, a hidden bay and Galazia Nera, a narrow pass between Diaporos and Agios Isidoros where you can enjoy a swim stop in the shallow, warm, turquoise water. Another cruise around the Athos peninsula offers amazing views of one of Orthodox Christianity's most important spiritual centres, Mouth Athos which has been around since 1054. The impressive monasteries have remained unchanged since Byzantine times. Guests can visit the birthplace of Aristotle on another tour to Aristotle Park, admiring the statue of the ancient Greek philosopher. The trip also takes you to the village of Arnea, home to Macedonian architecture, tavernas and one of the more important historical sites. The Royal Tomb of Phillip the Second, King of Macedon and father of 'Alexander the Great' is situated at the foothills of Mount Pierra, one of Greece's most important archaeological discoveries. Visitors may also enjoy a cultural excursion to Thessaloniki, stopping at the Archaeological Museum, the Byzantine Museum, the Jewish Museum and the Atatürk Museum. The Macedonian Museum of Contemporary Art will appeal to art lovers, and there are plenty of treats for children. Thessaloniki also appeals to foodies with its excellent food markets and street food. Shopping trips can be enjoyed at the Mediterranean Cosmos Shopping Mall or the label-laden boutiques in Thessaloniki's centre.

There are so many fabulous beaches to discover in Halkidiki, many surrounded by olive groves and enjoying the scent of pine trees. Aside from Ouranoupolis Beach and Ammouliani Island, some of the other wonders are Alykes, St. George, Megali Ammos and Karagatsia. Tigani in Drenia is simply fabulous. Stavros boasts all-day cafe bars and high organisation. Olympiada is a stunning area protected by the Natura 2000 programme. If you want an adventurous day, horseback riding, cycling and hiking are all popular in the Cholomontas Mountain with its forest and wonderful variety of wildlife.

If you want to discover Halkidiki's other fingers, you can head to Pefkochori, a bustling seaside resort on the gorgeous Kassandra peninsula. Its whitewashed houses are beautifully decorated with flowers and the main street is brimming with restaurants, cafes, beach bars and shops. Visitors enjoy strolling through the old town of Pefkochori to the tiny village square with its church, fountain and coffee shop where many locals gather. Colourful boats are moored at the pier taking tourists on wonderful excursions. Just outside of the village, you will discover more beautiful beaches including Kanapitsa, Chrisi Akti, Alonaki and Chrouso. The most lively place on Kassandra is Kallithea, surrounded by a beautiful pine forest. You will find gold shops, fur shops, clothing boutiques, supermarkets and plenty of eateries. Kallithea is the ultimate choice for a wild, party evening. It attracts the best DJ's of Northern Greece. You will hear Buzuki music and might even catch a glimpse of a strip show. In the centre of the town you will find the Russian style Church of St. Panteleimon and an archaeological site where the Temple of Dionysus, the Nymphs and part of Ammon Zeus have been excavated.
