

Villa Villiere

Region: French Riviera (Cote D'Azur) Sleeps: 8

---

Overview

Perched above the French Riviera with glorious Mediterranean views, Villa Villiere enjoys a private and privileged setting within walking distance to a sandy bay, beachside restaurant and a pretty marina.

This striking abode is a masterpiece in contemporary design with vast windows and sliding doors framing the picture-perfect vistas of the sea. Air-conditioned throughout, the open-plan living and dining space is inspiring with modern décor, stylish furnishings and bold features – the high ceilings of the lounge are especially impressive. Meanwhile, doors slide open to spacious terraces with al-fresco living areas, an outdoor bar and the infinity swimming pool, all looking out to the azure-coloured sea.

8 guests can sleep across the four double bedrooms, each one individually designed with their own eye-catching style. We love the master bedroom with its gorgeous bathtub, walk-in shower and dressing room, then there's the stunning mezzanine level, home to a TV lounge and open-plan bedroom with its own sea-facing upper terrace – what a place for an evening aperitif!

Set amongst terraced gardens with olive trees and also featuring its own boules court, wander down a dusty track and in around ten minutes you will reach a little bay and summer beachside restaurant. Continue strolling along the coast towards the atmospheric marina, home to restaurants, a handful of shops and summer watersports, then seek shade beneath the idyllic umbrella pines of Plage des Pins Penchés.

There's even longer stretches of beaches along the Giens peninsula, just a short drive away, whether you're looking for gently-shelving shores or windsurfing opportunities, whilst further seaside resorts along the coast include Le Lavandou and Cavalaire-sur-Mer.

You could even visit Saint-Tropez for a wonderful day out or stay closer to home to discover the charm of Hyères, only 9km away, with its characterful old quarter, authentic restaurants and wine-bars.

Other highlights include the tranquil Îles d'Hyères, picturesque villages in the Côte d'Azur hills and superb walking and biking opportunities along the coast, the perfect way to discover the natural beauty of this enchanting part of the French Riviera.

Location & Local Information

With stunning sea views and in a private position, Villa Villiere is located close to a charming fishing port and pretty bays, just a short distance from characterful Hyères and the great city of Toulon.

You can reach the sea in ten minutes, following the dusty tracks down the hill, then continue wandering along the coast to the local port with its restaurants, cafes and summer watersports. It's such a delightful place to spend time, soaking up the relaxed French Riviera ambience and enjoying wonderful sea views. Here you will also find sea-kayaking, sailing and fishing trips.

The iconic Plage des Pins Penchés is also nearby, an idyllic cove beneath the umbrella pines leading to a park with breath-taking views. Even closer is a small but very picturesque sandy bay with a summer restaurant and a longer stretch of beach with an attractive promenade, canoes and kayaks, another beachside restaurant and a life-guard in the height of the summer.

The Giens peninsula, around a 10-minute drive away, is home to the long sandy beach, Plage de l'Almanarre, which is perfect for windsurfing and kitesurfing. You may prefer Plage La Bergerie on the other side, especially if travelling with youngsters who will love the gently-shelving water here. Find yet more water-based activities across the peninsula or make the most of the lovely walks in this part of the Côte d'Azur.

With ferry departures from Tour Fondue, Toulon or Hyères, spend the day visiting one of the beautiful Îles d'Hyères for yet more wonderful landscapes, tranquil walking opportunities, beaches and swimming as well as woodland and vineyards.

Also close by, Hyères is a charming French Riviera town with an authentic old quarter, vibrant restaurants and wine-bars. The Farmer's market is especially atmospheric on a Saturday morning or escape the crowds at Parc Olbius Riquier, the town's landscaped gardens where you can spot animals, wander through bamboo trees and ride on the little train.

Heading further east along the captivating Côte d'Azur, visit the much-loved seaside towns of Le Lavandou or even as far as Cavalaire-sur-Mer (49km) and Saint-Tropez (59km). Away from the coast, discover the allure of Bormes-les-Mimosas (28km) and Grimaud (53km), both picture-perfect villages set in the French Riviera hills. La Môle (40km) is another gem in the Maures hills with some fabulous walking trails through the surrounding forests.
