

Casa Gerella

Region: Vilamoura Sleeps: 8

Overview

An enchanting and traditional villa located in Vilamoura, Casa Gerella captures all of the fundamental and luxurious elements of Portuguese living. The exterior of this property is truly inspiring, using a grandiose swimming pool as its centrepiece. Thus, guests are encouraged to relax and unwind in the soothing water as they close off the day. The exterior also contains a large garden area, complete with a quaint putting green, creating a fun environment for the whole family to enjoy. There is also an outdoor terrace area equipped with various outdoor seating arrangements. In turn, the whole family can enjoy a range of incredible meals whilst taking in the spectacular views surrounding them.

As you enter the property, you will come across the stylish and contemporary living room. This space contains two black leather sofas that have been expertly decorated with a collection of scatter cushions. As a result, guests can gather in one unique space and truly enjoy each other's company. Moving on to the dining area, this space follows a more elegant theme. The broad glass-topped table is encircled by a selection of ornate chairs, creating an attractive and communal environment for guests to revel in. Opposite the dining area is the kitchen, a truly stunning part of the property. This space is centred around the kitchen island, which also doubles as a breakfast bar, and it makes use of many sleek black cupboards, allowing guests to prepare and serve an assortment of terrific meals in one stylish location. The lower level of this property is also home to three bedrooms. The first bedroom contains a large double bed and also provides access to a luxurious en-suite bathroom with a shower. The second and third bedrooms are both twin rooms that make use of a pair of single beds. As such, these rooms are ideal for children or for guests who would prefer to sleep separately.

On the first floor, you will be greeted by the opulent main bedroom. This room includes a considerable double bed and a desk area, meaning that this space is perfect for both work and leisure. Plus, guests can also gain access to a widespread outdoor terrace that provides magnificent views of the nearby scenery.

Location & Local Information

Casa Gerella is just a 20-minute drive away from the bustling region of Vilamoura, placing guests within close proximity to some of the finest tourist attractions available. If you are looking to explore this region in an entirely unique way, a Segway tour is a perfect attraction. These tours begin at the local McDonald's that is located in the centre of Vilamoura. From here, guests will embark on a 90-minute ride on a Segway, giving them the opportunity to visit all of the most prominent tourist attractions at an easy pace. As part of the experience, guests will receive a Segway, a safety helmet, and insurance for the full 90-minutes. These tours are fairly reasonable, starting at around €57.

Vilamoura is also known for its immersive golfing facilities, with the Golf Integrated Academy located just 7-minutes away from the centre of the town. With over 20 years of experience, the Golf Integrated Academy offers some of the most incredible golf lessons and workshops available. The course itself varies in difficulty, making it ideal for a wide assortment of players. Furthermore, this academy offers all of the sporting equipment needed in order to play a fantastic game. Using state-of-the-art technology, this establishment can also help guests refine their existing skills, identifying the nuances in their techniques. Many previous guests have praised the head coach for his friendly nature and industry-level techniques and skills.

If you are looking to explore Vilamoura in both speed and style, a private speed boat tour is a perfect way to do so. These speed boats can be rented at the Vilamoura Marina, which is located just 5 minutes away from the town centre. During this tour, guests have the chance to explore the hidden gems that are usually left untouched by conventional tourist groups. Therefore, guests can absorb the true nature of the rock formations and the striking beauty of the local beaches. In fact, you can even hire a disability-accessible speed boat to add more convenience to your trip. Prices for this activity start at around €175 for up to 7 guests.
