

Casa Relajarse

Region: Tulum Sleeps: 18

Overview

Minimalistic and ultra contemporary Casa Relajarse boasts eight bedrooms, nine bathrooms and can sleep up to eighteen people. This upscale "modern brutalist" property also has vast communal areas and a stunning courtyard with a 18 metre swimming pool. Overall area of the villa and the grounds totals at an impressive 12k sq ft. It is extremely private, offering you respite from the outside world in the most beautiful surroundings, but you are still perfectly located to explore the unique and stunning Tulum. It has so much to offer for everyone, Mayan ruins, fine dining as well as hip eateries, snorkelling in a reef, scuba diving or cenotes - the options are endless!

Bare essentials create simple and uncluttered spaces which make this roomy villa even bigger! Monochromatic palette of earthy naturals highlights basic materials used here - stone, wood, metal and linen - which let the greenery be the main player and an accent colour. You will feel like you are in your own botanical garden.

The space in the courtyard around the pool is perfect for lazy lounging and sipping cocktails. There are numerous bean bags and relaxing surfaces provided, for your ultimate comfort. Afterwards, you can easily transfer to the fire pit area for a cosy evening with your group. A magnificent outdoor kitchen and dining area look out to the courtyard - perfect location for meals bigger and smaller, as well as even fetching a quick refreshment. Seating/living area is located just above the kitchen which gives you a wonderful view of the courtyard and the abundance of plants and trees from above. Almost like zip lining above a jungle!

All of the eight bedrooms are tastefully minimalistic and independent, all have fabulous en suite bathrooms, air conditioning and ceiling fans. They all contain a king size bed, while the eighth bedroom also has two single beds, as well as the king - perfect for a family or close friends. There is plenty of storage and space in all of them and all the toiletries provided are organic. Everywhere in the house is connected to optical fibre high speed internet for some news, emails and favourite shows catch ups. Ground-level bedrooms have an additional benefit of their own private plunge pools and patios, but staying upstairs gives you access to the wonderful terrace and you are much closer to the greenery and the stars!

Location & Local Information

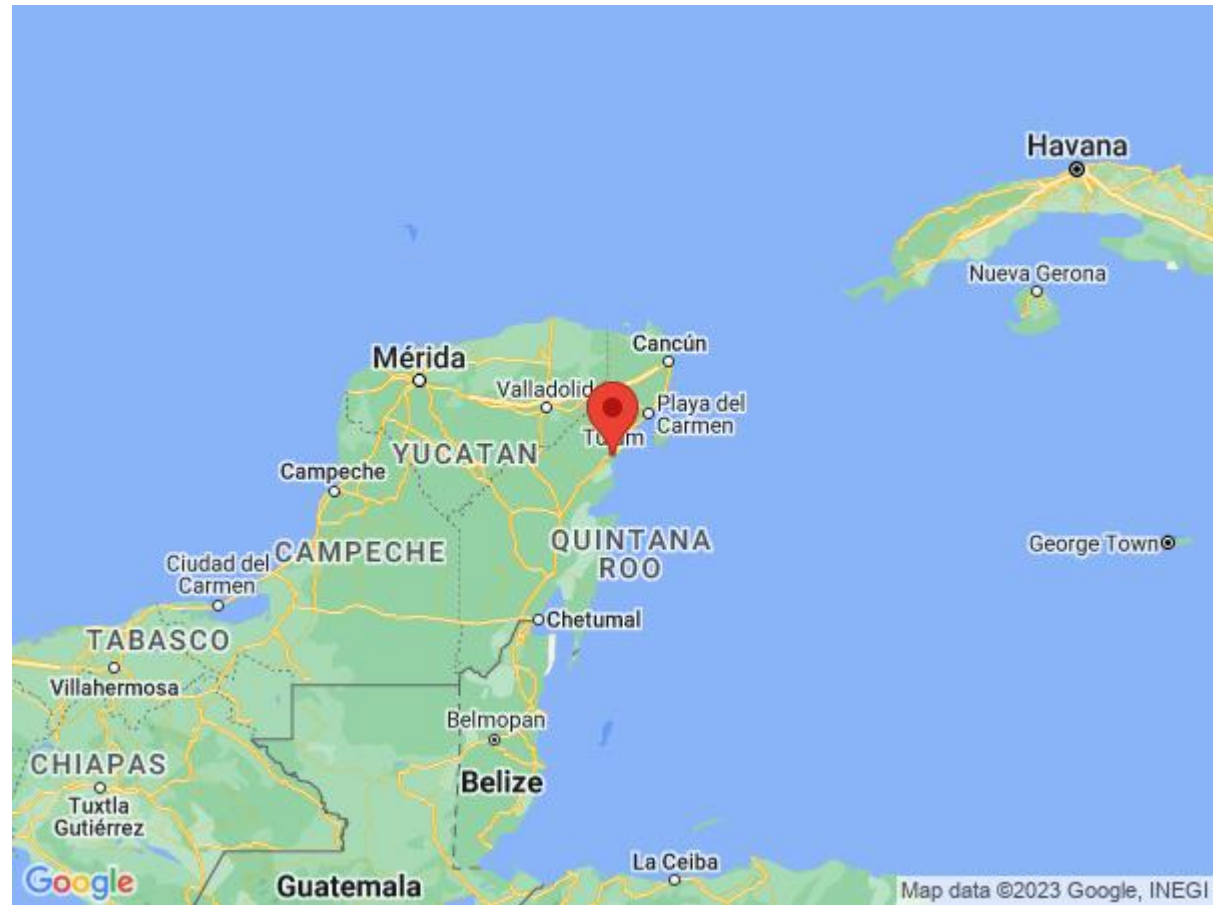

Casa Relajarse is located a 15 min bike ride away (or 10 min by car) from the most beautiful beaches in the world and it is worth exploring all of them, time allowing. North beaches (Playa Ruinas, Playa Paraiso, & Las Palmas) have been shielded from too much development, and the beachfront is wider, meaning there is a lot more open sand for laying out a towel and chilling away from the beach club crowds. Bars are a tad hipper (and cheaper) here too. They're easily accessible and offer some great views of Mayan ruins!

Tulum's south beach is home to a vast array of luxury Riviera Maya hotels and beach clubs. It's hard to access the beach unless you go through one of the hotels in Tulum, as the resorts try to preserve some exclusivity for their guests. With gorgeous white sand here, it is worth giving it a shot and renting a cabana for the day, benefit from the beach club bar and perhaps try some kitesurfing! An absolute must do from anywhere in Yucatan or Quintana Roo are the 13th century Tulum Mayan ruins. They're not the biggest ruin site in Mexico, but their dramatic location on a cliff overlooking the beach makes Tulum ruins an unreal site to behold. Best to visit early in the day for the best chance to snap some fantastic images and memories (bonus, enormous iguanas roam freely around!).

Just south of Tulum lies the incredibly vast Sian Ka'an Biosphere, a protected area home to thousands of species of flora and fauna (dolphins, turtles, fish and birds aplenty), as well as some of the most pristine azure water in Mexico. Fantastic for a day trip! The most refreshing thing to do in Tulum is to dive into a cenote, a set of jungle swimming holes formed by underground springs cutting into the limestone bedrock. One of the most popular is Cenote Dos Ojos, which is located just 20 minutes north of town (you can get there by colectivo or via a taxi). You may be an avid gorgeous beach fan, but once you try a dip in a cool fresh cenote, you'll understand why it is worth coming here! There are some fantastic eateries and places to drink in Tulum, from food walking tours which offer some spots off the beaten track, to Mexican cooking lessons with Mezcal tasting at private premises! Some finer dining can be experienced at Taboo or Norita.
