

Villa Delino

Region: Colares Sleeps: 10

Overview

A stunning and charming villa located in Colares, Villa Delino is able to delight guests with its array of fashionable amenities. The exterior of this property showcases a grandiose swimming pool that is surrounded by a chic decking area. As a result, guests can choose to either unwind on a high-end sun lounger or dive into the soothing water of the pool. This villa also makes use of an incredible outdoor lounge area that is ideal for spending quality together as a family. In addition, there is also an outdoor terrace that is fitted with an exquisite dining area, giving guests the opportunity to enjoy an array of delicious meals whilst taking in the amazing views that surround them.

Inside, this property collates a variety of nuanced design features and presents all of them in one fantastic space. The main living area is made up of a large brown leather sofa as well as a lime green sofa. These pieces create an exciting contrast, giving the room a unique sense of character. Guests can also access the outdoor terrace through the large glass doors seen in this room. Opposite the living area is the dining room, a space that includes a large brown table with an accompanying set of yellow chairs. Thus, guests can enjoy their daily meals in an attractive and communal environment. The kitchen adheres to a more simplistic style, using bright white cupboards to build upon a striking and minimalist design. The ground floor is also home to the first three bedrooms. Both the first and second bedrooms contain spacious double beds that provide access to their own private en-suite bathrooms. The third bedroom contains a single bed and an en-suite bathroom with a shower. Therefore, this room is ideal for a child who is able to sleep independently.

Upstairs, you will find the remaining three bedrooms. Bedrooms four and five also contain double beds with access to en-suite bathrooms. As such, this proves that Villa Delino has enough space for guests to live and move around as they please. Finally, the sixth bedroom contains a pair of single beds, making it ideal for two small children or a couple who prefers to sleep separately.

Location & Local Information

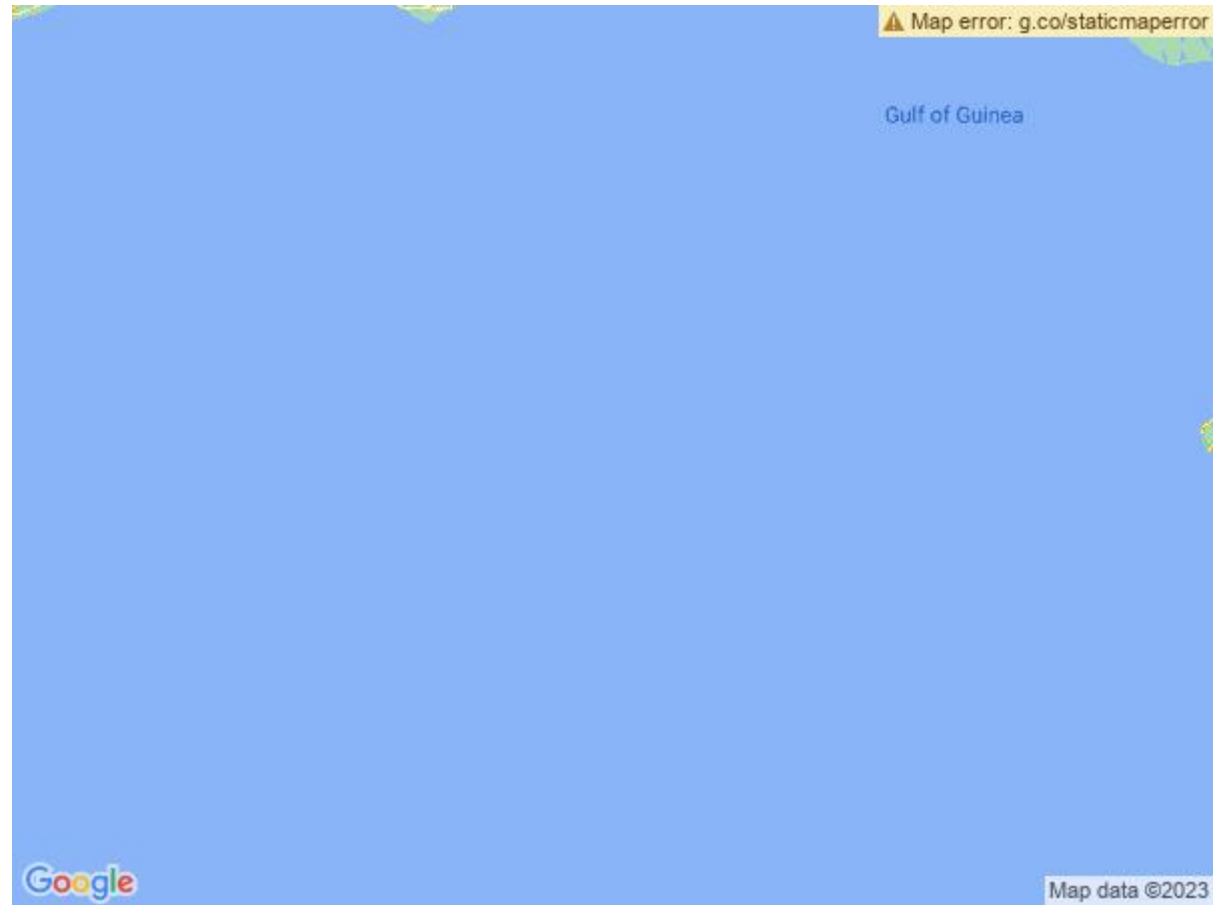

Villa Delino is located in Colares, an outstanding region that is teeming with alluring attractions and destinations. The Park and Palace of Monserrate is a truly flawless landmark that truly exemplifies the natural beauty that this region has to offer. The palace itself is decorated in a Gothic, Indian, and Moorish style, elucidating how rich and diverse Colares truly is. Inside the palace, there is a collection of Romantic statues for guests to marvel at and admire. There is also an expansive garden located outside of the palace, which hosts a variety of native plants and horticulture. The Park and Palace of Monserrate are less than 10-minutes away from the centre of Colares and cost around €8 per guest.

The Castle of the Moors is another significant landmark that is based just over 20-minutes away from the centre of the region. This castle dates back to the 9th century and showcases a rich assortment of artefacts that highlight the legacy of that time period. During a self-guided tour, guests can explore the archaic walls of the castle as well as uncover the awe-inspiring battlements and towers. This tour is perfect if you are looking to explore this region in more detail as it provides incredible scenic views from various points around the castle. Tickets for this attraction are very affordable, costing around €8 each.

Colares and its surrounding regions are well known for their remarkable native dishes that seem to attract tourists from far and wide. Cooking Lisbon is an acclaimed intuition that runs an engaging cooking class just under 45-minutes away from Colares. During this exciting class, guests will be asked to cook, prepare, and serve a high-end three-course meal. This includes a fish dish, a meat dish, and a dessert option. You also have the chance to sample a selection of native wines from local businesses throughout the region. This class also invites guests to try the food made by their fellow peers, helping to create a support community throughout. The standard class is available for just €85 per guest and lasts for around three and a half hours.
