Location & Local Information

Casa Cue is situated just five minutes from the popular destination town of Llanes, and just a few kilometres from some of the region's most beautiful beaches, including Antilles, Ballota and Andrin.

Also known as 'Cue beach', Antilles is a small, safe beach of fine white sand and rocky surrounds. At high tide, the beach looks like a natural pool, protected from the open sea and with hardly any waves, making it quite a hit with families, although please be aware that the beach isn't easily accessible to those with reduced mobility. The beach is rarely crowded and is a favourite spot for those who want to fish or scuba dive.

Andrin and Ballota beaches are separated by a scenic viewpoint, with Ballota often referred to as the quieter of the two 'sisters'. This beautiful beach boasts calm waters with little swell and white sands, but at high tide, the sand is almost completely covered, leaving just a pebble beach. Andrin is certainly the more 'boisterous' of the two, with strong waves that make it a popular spot for surfing rather than swimming. The sands are vast and clean, and there are amenities such as a bar/restaurant and ice cream kiosks nearby, so it's a great spot to go with the kids and spend the whole day.

Llanes is just a short distance from Casa Cue, so be sure to immerse yourself in the Asturian culture during your stay by enjoying the many fiestas that are celebrated in the town and the surrounding areas. With gastronomic festivals as well as religious fiestas taking place in the region, Llanes is a foodies' dream and a fantastic place for sampling some Asturian cuisine which is often rich in seafood, including squid, crab, lobster, mullet, scorpionfish, and anchovies. Cheese is also a staple of the region's cooking, with soft creamy queso de Vidiago, smoked Ahumado de Pria, and delicious goat's cheeses such as la Cuevona forming part of the delicious recipes that have been passed down from generation to generation. We recommend you sample some Fabada while you're here (a cassoulet-type stew), as well as tortos served with picadillo and fried eggs - and make sure you wash it all down with a glass of local cider poured from a great height in the traditional way!
