Location & Local Information

Villa Paris is located in the delightful region of Santa Eulalia, a destination that is well known for its striking collection of tourist attractions. This region is also known for its expansive golf courses, with establishments such as Golf Ibiza located just under 10-minutes away from the centre of Santa Eulalia. This intuition is home to a pair of tremendous 18-hole golf courses, both of which are open all year round. These courses are home to a collection of bunkers and water features, giving even the most experienced players a complex challenge. If you are looking to work on your existing skills, Golf Ibiza is home to a full-sized driving range and a putting green. There is even a high-end restaurant located on-site, allowing guests to delve into a delicious meal after an exhilarating game of golf.

Santa Eulalia is also recognised for its bustling and off-beat food scene, compiling a variety of worldly cuisines in one outstanding region. Higo presents a vibrant blend of Peruvian and Japanese cuisine, providing guests with a plethora of unique flavours and dishes. This establishment is run by a team of young and motivated chefs who are determined to give guests a vibrant experience every time they visit. There is a collection of sushi, ceviche, and yakitori on offer, all of which are prepared using the fresh ingredients grown in the restaurant's on-site hydroculture. Many previous guests praise the outdoor seating arrangement as it provides a romantic atmosphere and a selection of incredible views. Higo can be found just over 5-minutes away and welcomes guests Monday-Saturday from 7 pm till 1 am.

If you are looking to embark on a thrilling adventure during your time in Santa Eulalia, a jet ski excursion is a real treat. A majority of these tours depart from CBBC Santa Eulalia, which can be found around 5-minutes away. During your excursion, you will travel toward a collection of isolated bays and coves, helping guests to unlock a variety of hidden gems. Guests will also receive an extensive safety briefing beforehand, ensuring that everybody feels comfortable and confident before they begin their journey. A standard tour lasts for around an hour, but shorter tours can be booked, depending on the school.
