

Casa Panama

Region: Costa Brava Sleeps: 18

Overview

This impressive nine-bedroom villa is positioned close to the beach of Llafranc, on one of the most beautiful stretches of the Costa Brava. Initially built in the 1940s, it has been renovated with style and pizzazz. Spread over three floors, there are lots to enjoy! The lower ground floor is dedicated to entertainment; choose between racking up the balls on the billiard table, enjoying a drink at the bar or practising your moves on the dance floor. There's also a handy laundry room on this floor.

For more formal entertaining, head to the ground floor and the open-plan living space. Here you'll find high-quality furnishings, pendant lighting, and swathes of natural light. Stylish sofas invite you to take it easy while floor-to-ceiling glass doors offer up stunning views of the sea. There's also a sit-up bar that overlooks a marble-topped dining table seating 16 people. Pristine white walls and cool marble flooring sweep through to a separate lounge area where you can relax in style with a film. In the contemporary kitchen, rustle up a casual meal and serve it in the additional dining room with its eight-seater table. Also on this floor, you'll find an en-suite bedroom featuring bunk beds.

An elegant staircase spirals up to the first floor, where the remaining bedrooms are located. The bedrooms, featuring a mix of king-size and twin beds, all have huge ceiling fans, the whitest of linen and fabulous en-suite monochrome bathrooms. Some of the sea-facing bedrooms have access to a huge terrace, while others have small, private balconies.

While the interior is a grand affair, the outside is equally spectacular with an array of garden furniture, shady lawns and picture-perfect sea views. Splash in the pool, laze in a hammock, try your hand at ping pong or enjoy a game of tennis on your own private tennis court (which can also be switched for a football pitch or basketball court!). Those feeling less energetic can sit on the terrace and catch up on holiday reads. As the day draws to an end and a pine-scented breeze wafts across the lawn, gather friends and family and cook up a feast in the outdoor kitchen. There's a shady table here that invites al fresco dining, or if you're not in the mood to cook, there are plenty of good restaurants just 10 minutes away. Despite the tranquil location, Casa Panama is close to amenities. It's a 15-minute drive to the charming town of Begur and a 20-minute walk to the stunning Llafranc beach.

Location & Local Information

Nestled in the hillside overlooking one of the most beautiful stretches of coastline in the Costa Brava, the surrounding pine-clad landscape affords guests both peace and privacy. The location is also an ideal spot for walkers, with plenty of hiking trails right on the villa's doorstep. The whole family can enjoy the Cami de Ronda Tamariu – Far de Sant Sebastia route, which takes around 1 hour and offers up stunning coastal views and plenty of wildlife.

The Costa Brava is also home to some of the best diving sites in Spain, with the nearby Formigues Islands (a 25-minute drive from the property) offering crystal clear waters and an abundance of marine life. Snorkelers and scuba divers can spend the day here spotting a wide variety of fish, including groupers, moray eels and red gorgonians. But if you'd rather spend the day topping up your tan, head to Llafranc beach. A mere 25-minute walk away, it's the perfect place to relax with fine sands and turquoise waters. Afterwards, take a stroll along the promenade and watch the boats bobbing in the harbour or enjoy a leisurely lunch at one of the many chic restaurants. If you're feeling energetic, it's a 40-minute walk from the harbour to the lighthouse (Far de Sant Sebastia). Although it's a steep climb, it's worth the effort – from the top, you'll be rewarded with magnificent ocean views, and it even has a bar!

History-lovers can also spend time exploring the nearby ancient cities. The charming town of Begur is a 15-minute drive from the villa and well worth a visit. Its historic centre is a pretty place to stroll with its palaces and 'Indies' houses (built in colonial style) and is overlooked by the ruins of a 10th-century castle. Other historic villages include Pals and Peratallada. Both are under a 25-minute drive from the property and offer cobbled streets leading to medieval corners and centuries-old castles. For something a little different, visit Salvador Dalí's castle mansion in La Pera. It's a 30-minute drive inland and offers a surreal experience. Here you can meander through Dalí's bizarre gardens (dotted with statues of elephants with giraffes' legs) and contemplate his décor, including lion's heads on top of cupboards!

What we love

- Recently renovated, the villa is luxurious in design with numerous living areas, terraces and swathes of natural, uplifting light
- Packed with entertainment, the property has an impressive outdoor pool and tennis court plus indoor games room, two bars, and a dance floor!
- Surrounded by pine trees and close to the beach, the outdoor setting is a delight with endless sea and woodland views
- Beautifully appointed, this elegant property boasts sumptuous furnishings and luxurious fittings in every room
- The tennis court can also be converted into a football pitch and basketball court!

What you should know...

- There is no air-conditioning, but the living areas and bedrooms have powerful ceiling fans.
- The rooms are light and airy, but they do not all have access to a terrace
- The large swimming pool has no fencing, so children must be supervised at all times
