Location & Local Information

The small and beautiful agricultural village of Prazeres is one of the most picturesque locations on the island, a place of beauty situated on a natural terrace that overlooks the glittering Atlantic. Despite its remote-looking rural setting, there is a small supermarket and several restaurants nearby, and it's just a short drive to the nearest beach.

Prazeres is home to the small and pretty 'Our Lady of Prazeres' chapel, as well as a delightful little parish-run project farm, herb garden and tea house, so a quiet afternoon of exploring this charming little village is definitely time well-spent. You'll find a variety of local agricultural produce on offer here, as well as some quaint places to enjoy a coffee or a slice of cake, and across from the farm, there is a small exhibition of arts and crafts that is well worth visiting.

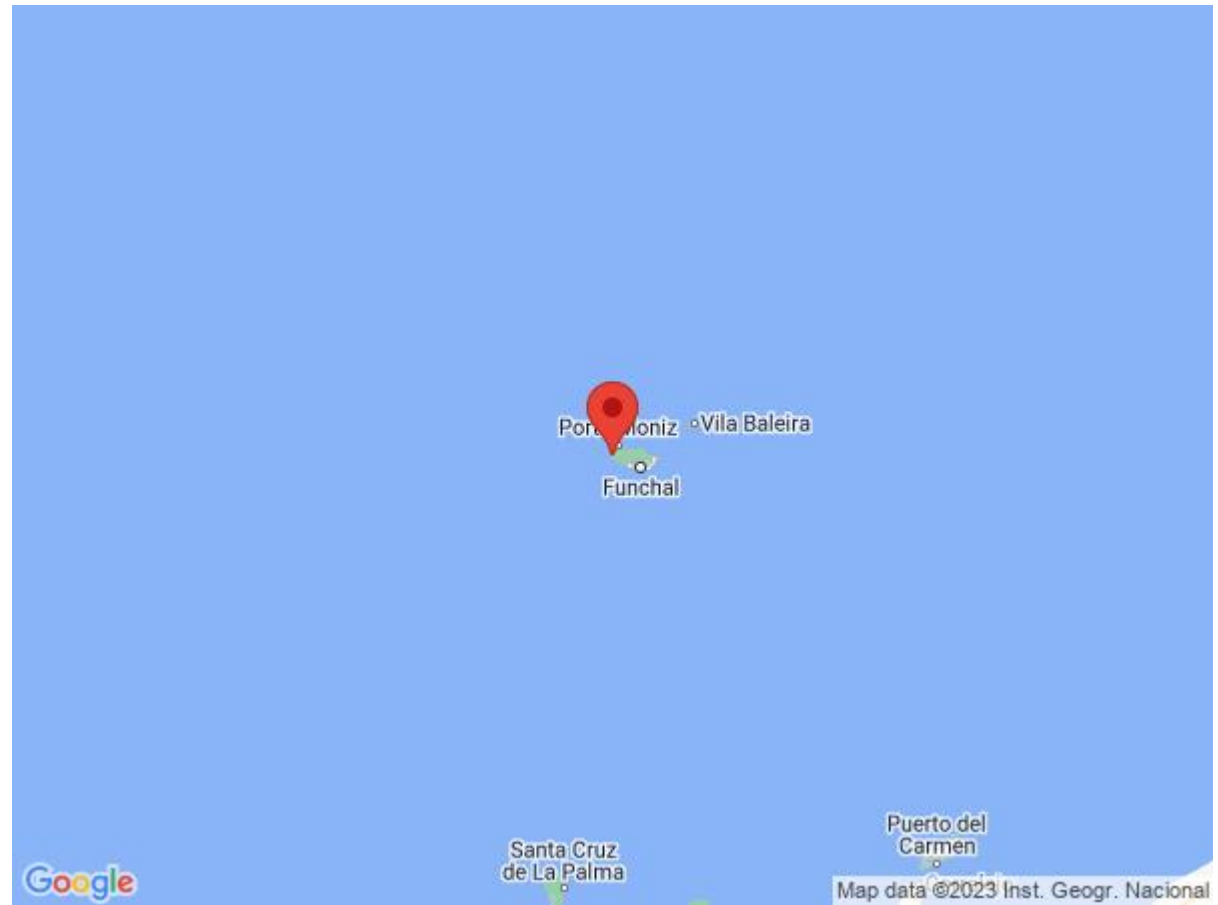

The island of Madeira is famous for its hiking trails, and several of the best begin right here in Prazeres - making it the perfect location for those who want to spend their holiday enjoying the great outdoors. For those who want to spend some time at the beach during their stay, you'll find the closest at nearby Calheta, a seaside town that is known as one of Madeira's most idyllic and historic areas. Calheta is famous for its banana and sugar cane plantations and its vineyards, as well as for having one of the only golden sandy beaches on the island - making it a go-to place for tourists. The area features a modern marina and is popular with visitors who love outdoor pursuits, including surfing, kayaking, windsurfing, scuba diving and paragliding. It's also one of the most fantastic spots on the island for whale and dolphin-spotting, and you'll find plenty of places offering whale-watching tours and boat trips along the marina.

While in Calheta, why not pay a visit to the Mudras Museum - a must-see destination for lovers of contemporary art. Here you'll find a collection of contemporary Portuguese art dating from the 1960s to the present, although it's worth knowing before you make the trip that the museum is only open Tuesday to Sunday. Another small yet interesting museum that is well worth a visit when you visit Calheta is the Sugar Cane Mill and museum - especially as entry is free! The museum houses machinery that was once used to process sugar cane, as well as a working mill which is still used to produce sugar cane honey today.

What you should know...

- Villa Logarinho has a quaint, country farmhouse vibe, so perhaps not suited to those who prefer an ultra-modern aesthetic

- Villa Logarinho features two double bedrooms, so a family with children will have to make the kids sharing a 'big bed' part of the holiday adventure!
