

Casa Uestra

Region: Binibeca Sleeps: 6

Overview

An extravagant property located in Binibeca, Casa Uestra is able to delight and inspire guests with its quirky array of off-beat decor and amenities. The exterior of this property is nothing short of tremendous, as seen by the exquisite swimming pool in the centre of the grounds. This pool is surrounded by a small collection of premium sun loungers, allowing guests to top off their tan before they jump into the cool water. The outdoor grounds are also equipped with a selection of outdoor seating and dining areas. These areas include an array of high-end furniture and are the perfect place to enjoy a glass of wine as you bask in the amazing sights that sit close by.

Inside, this property pulls upon an assortment of traditional design choices to create a homely and comforting environment for guests to enjoy. The living area makes use of a considerable L-shaped sofa that is covered in soft black leather. This sofa provides an unobstructed view of the flatscreen TV that sits at the back of the room, making this space ideal for epic family movie nights. Moreover, the living area also includes a small fireplace to keep guests warm and cosy throughout the cooler months of the year. The dining area also adheres to a similar theme, using a minimalist black table that is accompanied by a set of matching chairs. Therefore, guests can use this space to enjoy quality time together as a group. The kitchen within Casa Uestra includes a vast array of white cupboards, adding a touch of brightness to this entire property. In addition, this space is filled with amenities and cooking facilities, helping guests to prepare and serve some amazing dishes whenever they please.

Casa Uestra has three bedrooms. The first two bedrooms include king-sized beds and a variety of storage spaces. As such, guests can gain a restful night's sleep throughout their stay and will not have to worry about their belongings. The final bedroom contains a pair of single beds, making it ideal for two small children or for a couple who prefers to sleep apart.
