

Bensley Suite

Region: The Slate Sleeps: 2

Overview

Treat yourself to a luxurious getaway on Phuket's north coast with a stay at the Bensley Suite. Surrounded by lush tropical gardens and overlooking the twinkling Andaman Sea.

Situated across two levels, the luxurious Bensley Suite has been designed and named in honour of the architect who designed this very home. Split across two levels, this gorgeous property features an upstairs bedroom and bathroom, downstairs living space, a courtyard and an artistic private pool.

Throughout your stay at this luxurious villa, you'll have access to the services of your own personal butler who can assist with anything you need. Your butler will take care of all dinner reservations and organising any trips or activities you wish to participate in.

At ground level, you have a beautiful living space that blends traditional Thai with modern art, weaving in The Slate's signature industrial style. Your living room features a seating area with sofas and chairs and large floor-to-ceiling windows that open up onto a patio.

Additional furniture is located outside, such as sun loungers, a large day bed, and a dining space. Elegant decking leads down to your large swimming pool—a fantastic water feature decorated in artsy patterns of black, white and grey rectangular tiles.

A set of outdoor steps lead up to your sleeping area, which is comprised of a large double bed and a large lounging space with chairs and a TV. An outdoor balcony provides exquisite views over the surrounding canopy and sea beyond.

Your bathroom is located just off from the bedroom, with a smart double sink for washing up and an oversized bathtub. Adding to the experience, your bathtub is located on a shaded balcony, allowing you to take in the beautiful views as you soak and revitalise.

There are no cooking facilities at Bensley Suite, however, finding food is extremely easy when staying at The Slate. There is a great selection of on-site dining, including private chef experiences for an unforgettable occasion. You're also just a short walk away from Nai Yang Beach, where you'll be spoiled for choice for dining opportunities.

For adventure beyond Bensley Suite, there's lots to discover around The Slate including an excellent spa, large communal swimming pools, a gym and more.

Location & Local Information

The Slate is located in one of the most desirable locations in all of Phuket. Situated at the northern edge of the island, Bensley Suite is located right on the beach and just a ten-minute drive away from Phuket Airport.

If you want to get out and explore during your stay, there are lots of sights within walking distance of the property, and for those further away, The Slate offers bike rental for a reasonable cost.

Nai Yang Beach is just a short stroll away from Bensley Suite and accessible almost directly via the resort's rear. Step out onto gorgeous golden sands that have won hearts and minds across the world as you settle down for a day bathing in the sun's rays and swimming in the gorgeous blue of the Andaman Sea.

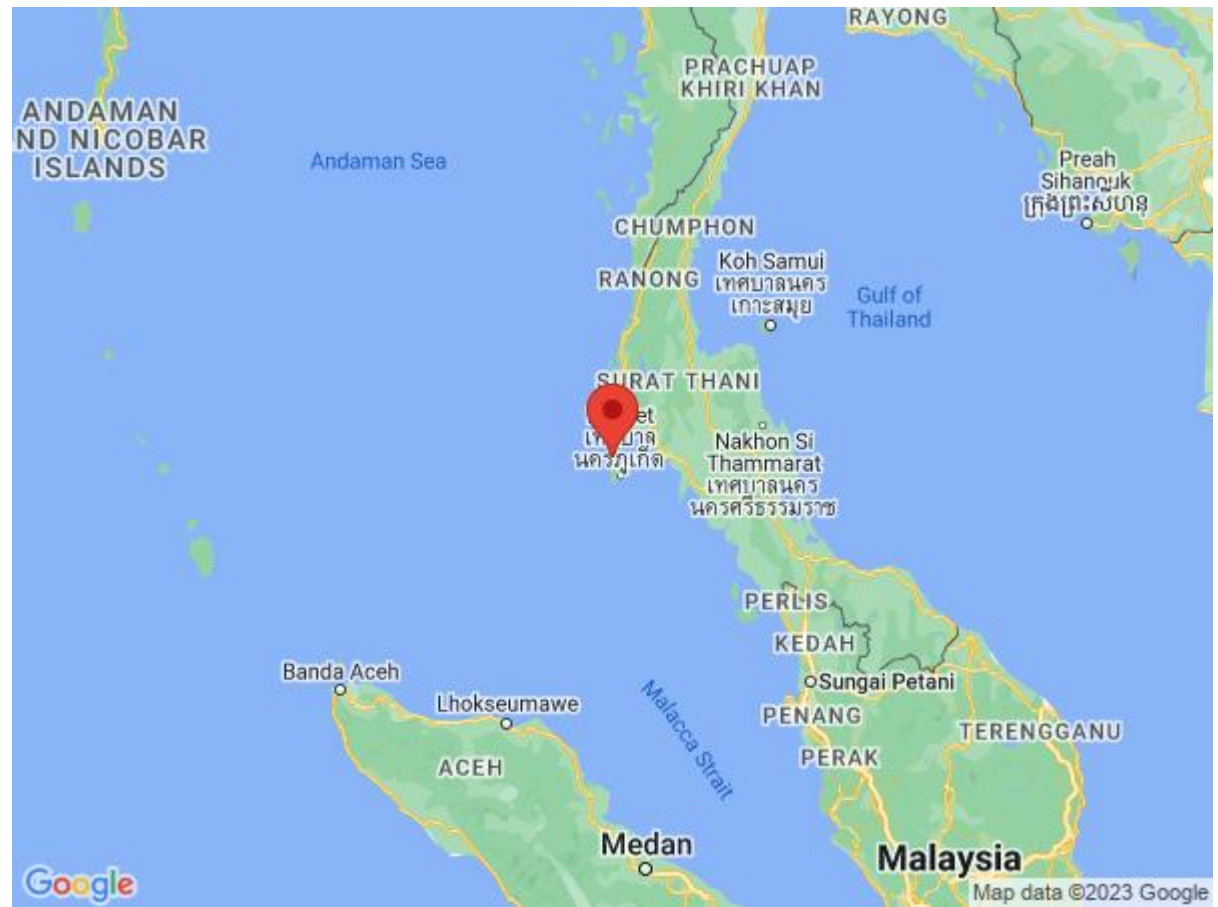

Along the beachfront, you'll find lots of opportunities to mix with the locals as there are lines of shops, bars and restaurants to tempt you inside.

If you fancy exploring further afield, Phuket is a relatively small island where you can access most attractions within an hour's drive. Discover the quirky Phuket Old Town to the island's south, with its Sino-Portuguese architecture and famous markets.

Also to the south is the iconic Big Buddha, a 150ft tall sculpture of a seated Maravija Buddha that has become a pilgrimage point for both tourists and local worshippers alike.
