A brisk walk from the beach, the villa is equally stunning. Tall, rustling trees and a teeming private garden border the sparkling outdoor pool. Comfy deck chairs make for a relaxing siesta, perfect to swim, sunbathe and unwind for hours.

Much like its surroundings, the villa boasts a laid-back, tropical charm — with interiors that are earthy, elegant and full of character. The resort also organizes pickups from Phuket Airport, Ao Nang Beach and the neighbouring islands of Koh Phi and Koh Lanta.

Accessible only by boat, Railay Beach is well-known for its deep blue ocean and marvellous limestone formations. A haven for rock-climbers, it boasts to over 700 climbing sites and hosts the annual Krabi Rock and Fire International Contest.

The Aao Nam Mao Outdoor Aquarium offers luminous exhibits of rare fish, turtles and sharks, while Phranang Beach Cave remains famous for its sacred image of Buddha.

Island-hopping tours are a no brainer, with Krabi Town and Ao Nang being among popular choices. Discover fascinating caves and hidden gems in the company of an expert local guide.

A treacherous, but equally rewarding climb of 1,237 steps will take you to the Footprints of Buddha in the Tiger Cave Temple. Witness the lives of monks who used to live and meditate inside these caves. You will see fascinating stone tools, pottery relics and bizarre pictures of cadavers — which symbolise the Buddhist philosophy that all physical forms are transitory.
