Location & Local Information

Capella, Bangkok is found in a beautiful location, immersed in the best of the Thai capital. Set back from the busy streets, situated along the Chao Phraya River on Charoenkrung road.

The Chao Phraya River is the life source of Thailand, it winds through the heart of Bangkok, stunning the city with beautiful views of the calming water. Charoenkrung is the city's oldest paved road where historic, resilient neighbourhoods steeped in tradition are combined with trendy and fashionable cafes, bars, and art galleries. Whether you're looking to discover the city's history or dive into the urban life, Capella, Bangkok's location is perfect for you!

If you're looking to discover what Bangkok has to offer outside of the hotels immediate area, then it's important to note that the Capella's excellent location also allows for top notch transport services. Hop onto a river boat and avoid the traffic the city is renowned for.

Take a short stroll to the Embassy Suit Gallery Bangkok Tailor and experience a full service bespoke custom tailor where you can receive VIP treatment and design the clothes of your dreams.

There are twenty-nine restaurants located within a short walking distance of the hotel if you're looking to dive into the local cuisine.

Just a taxi ride away lies CentralWorld Siam, the largest shopping mall in Thailand. Find a well-rounded collection of shops and entertainment outlets catering to the modern lifestyle. CentralWorld's youthful dynamic feels welcoming and is always buzzing with life.

Also, worth a visit is MBK, well-known among tourists as a haven for all things affordable. MBK is like an indoor Chatuchak market, with some 2,000 shops occupying seven floors of retail spaces. Its main selling point is the price and diversity of its collection of products, particularly mobile phones, photo equipment, video games, luggage, streetwear, and gold ornaments.

Guests must also visit the Patpong Night Market, located just a short taxi drive away to Silom Road, where guests can experience the city's notorious nightlife.
